President's Legislative Plans Grow

5 New Measures To Be Considered, Rep. Albert Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's legislative program is expanding like a batch of yeasty bread dough in a warm kitchen.

Until Tuesday, about all that had been mentioned in the way of priority legislation were two big bills the President did not get last year — medical care for the aged under Social Security and the Appalachia bill to pump federal aid into the depressed 11-state mountain region.

But after a White House conference with the President Tuesday, House Democratic Leader Carl Albert talked to reporters in his Capitol office and said these measures also are being considered as next in line after those two:

— Expanded Social Security benefits for all present recipients.

— A new life for the area redevelopment program, aimed at jacking up the economies of high-unemployment areas. This proposal fell by the wayside in the last Congress.

— An immigration bill revising the old quota system.

— A program for increased and liberalized unemployment compensation.

— And perhaps a general aid to education bill below the college level, a program that in the past has always foundered on the shoals of the religious school question.

As to the last, Albert said "Well, I'm sure that will be considered."

Albert and Speaker John W. McCormack conferred with Johnson before Albert left for a vacation in his Oklahoma district.

Albert emphasized that none of these things was discussed in detail at the White House, but only in the most general way.

The President, with whopping majorities in both houses, is in a position to get almost anything he wants through Congress.

The President also has called for repeal of a number of "nuisance"-type excise taxes on handbags, lipsticks and the like.

House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, who engineered some serious setbacks to the President's legislation program in the last session, already has conceded quick passage of the medical care and Appalachia bills.

8,200 Share $631,000 In Yule Savings

A Christmas "plum" of nearly $631,000 will be distributed to 8,200 Christmas Club members by four area financial institutions.

The figure is $22,609 more than was distributed in 1963 with 217 more members.

The Potters Bank & Trust Co. will mail its checks as soon as some material is received while the First National Bank, Potters Savings & Loan Co. and Central Federal Savings & Loan Association of Wellsville will put their checks into the mail Tuesday.

Potters Bank said 2,547 members will receive checks totaling $213,240 for an average of nearly $84. Last year it paid $200,729 to 2,448 members.

The checks will be mailed Thursday.

First National said its 3,486 members will receive $264,436, an average of approximately $75. It paid out $261,447 to 3,408 members in 1963.

Potters Savings will distribute $92,768 to 1,313 members, averaging about $70 per check. Last year it disbursed $88,545 to 1,302.

Central Federal will pay out $60,443 to 853 club members, also averaging approximately $70. It distributed $57,557 to 824 accounts last year.

33 Homes In Alaska Flooded In High Tide

SELDOVIA, Alaska (AP) — Thirty-three homes were flooded Tuesday night as record high tides hit this quake-tilted community.

Seldovia sank 3.4 feet after the March 27 earthquake and the high tides of this week were expected to do minor damage.

Direct Appeal Made

U.S. Asks Congo Rebel Chiefs To Protect Carlson

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The United States appealed directly to Congolese rebel leaders today to protect medical missionary Paul Carlson and other Americans and to permit their safe evacuation.

U.S. Ambassador G. McMurtrie Godley directed the appeal to rebel President Christophe Gbenye's headquarters in Stanleyville, where about 60 Americans and nearly 800 Belgians are "prisoners of war."

Godley presumably sent the appeal by radio or through an intermediary. The United States does not have direct contact with the rebel capital 775 miles northeast of Leopoldville.

The United States said it holds the rebel authorities "directly and personally responsible for the safety of Dr. Carlson and of all American citizens in areas under your control."

"As you know," the message continued, "this government along with other nations has fully supported the unsuccessful efforts of the International Committee of the Red Cross and the OAU (Organization of African Unity) ad hoc commission to get your agreement to an ICRC humanitarian mission in Stanleyville and to arrangements to protect and evacuate innocent civilians.

"We continue to stand ready to cooperate fully in such humanitarian efforts and to discuss arrangements through these organizations. We are so advising the chairman of the OAU ad hoc commission (Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta of Kenya) and urge you to communicate with him in this matter."

A broadcast from Stanleyville Tuesday gave the first indication that Carlson was still alive.

The rebels had announced early Monday that the 36-year-old doctor from Rolling Hills, Calif., had been convicted of espionage and sentenced to die at noon that day. The broadcast Tuesday said that Gbenye met Monday with the U.S. consul to discuss the question of prisoners of war and that rebel officials who defended Carlson at his trial were present.

A rebel radio message on Oct. 29 said the Americans and Belgians in rebel territory would be held until the U.S. and Belgian governments halted their military aid to Premier Moise Tshombe's government in Leopoldville.

Sees A-Weapons Accord

Ball Optimistic On NATO Force

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of State George W. Ball has returned from Europe optimistic about prospects for agreement early next year for formation of a nuclear weapons force within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Ball came back Tuesday from the first of two scheduled European missions concerned primarily with divisions among the Atlantic Allies over a variety of military, political and economic problems.

His primary concern, however, has been to do everything possible to move forward work on the nuclear weapons problem.

He told reporters that he brought back "a good deal of optimism as regard to the spirit" with which interested European Allies are now working on the U.S. proposal for organization of a seaborne nuclear missile force.

"I think the German government is very determined to try to make a success of this proposal," Ball said.

However, he said it would take some weeks beyond the previous yearend deadline for an agreement in order to give the new British Labor government time to work out its position on the nuclear weapons issue.

Ball devoted his trip of the last few days to conferring with German leaders, including Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder. He made it obvious that Germany, which was earlier pressing hard for an agreement by the end of the year, and the United States have agreed on a delay of at least some weeks so the British may have time to come up with any new proposals they may wish to make.

Other officials said, in fact, that it is the new British Labor government's active interest in finding solutions for the various heretofore divisive issues in the nuclear weapons project which is the real cause of the new surge of optimism about getting an agreement.

Beaver Local Issue

Family At Rogers Faces Court Over Bus Protests

At least one Rogers family faces court action Thursday at Lisbon as a result of alleged truancy stemming from the Beaver Local School District transportation cutbacks.

The mothers escort of children to the Rogers School dwindled to one parent and 14 youngsters this morning, and the controversy over the school buses apparently was easing.

County Supt. James McBride said two Rogers families had faced Juvenile Court hearings Thursday for keeping their children from school in reaction against the bus situation.

—:—

HOWEVER, the youngsters of the one family were back in school today. The other family's student was absent, and McBride said the parents will be charged with violation of the Ohio laws on compulsory attendance.

"The laws do not permit parents to retain children from school because of transportation problems," he declared.

Atty. Ralph Shwartz of Youngstown, retained by a group of parents, conferred with Beaver Local officials and County Prosecutor William Brokaw at Lisbon Tuesday on financial and policy matters of the district's transportation.

Shwartz was scheduled to report at a meeting of Rogers residents tonight at 7 at the Rogers Community Hall.

An order by the Board of Education trimming three buses from the scheduled runs and directing students residing within a mile of school to walk went into effect Nov. 10.

—:—

SOME protesting parents staged demonstrations at Calcutta, Elkton and Rogers, and a number of mothers began escorting children along the highways.

These protesting parents claimed students were endangered by walking along the roads, and urged the board to restore the bus runs or to provide some other transportation means.

The board emphasized the cuts were made solely due to lack of operating funds, pointing to other cutbacks in the school programs, and said transportation within two miles of school is primarily the responsibility of parents.

SHWARTZ questioned the Beaver Local officials yesterday at Brokaw's office concerning five points — the pupil transportation funds for 1964, the two-

Bomb Blast Wounds 18 Americans

Terrorist Device Levels Restaurant At Saigon Airport

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A terrorist's bomb demolished a restaurant at the Saigon airport today, wounding 18 Americans and at least four Vietnamese.

One American Air Force officer was badly wounded. He was sitting outside the restaurant in a bus when concrete fragments smashed into it.

The other injured Americans were 11 U.S. airmen, three Army men and three civilians.

First reports indicated they were in the area of the restaurant, not in the building, and were only slightly wounded.

The explosion virtually leveled the Air Viet Nam restaurant situated a few buildings from hangars containing U.S. Air Force jets.

American and Vietnamese security men at first thought the airport was under a Communist mortar attack similar to that which killed four Americans and wounded 72 at the Bien Hoa air base two weeks ago.

A few minutes before the explosion an Australian air force plane had arrived from Singapore with flood relief supplies for central Viet Nam.

An armada of 115 U.S. helicopters was landing at the airport as the explosion took place. They had been engaged in the biggest airlift of the Vietnamese war, carrying troops into Communist territory north of Saigon.

Demolition experts said the bomb was of a plastic type and probably weighed about 45 pounds.

It had been placed above a concrete beam inside the restaurant. A similar bombing in the Caravelle Hotel in downtown Saigon last August smashed through 21 rooms.

Four Vietnamese were dragged bleeding from the debris of the restaurant.

Police arrested four boys between the ages of 15 and 20 for questioning.

Tried To Air Freight Prisoner To Cairo

Italy Expels 2 Egyptians Foiled In Kidnap Attempt

ROME (AP) — The Italian Foreign Ministry today ordered the immediate expulsion of two Egyptian diplomats caught trying to ship a bound, drugged prisoner to Cairo in a trunk labeled "diplomatic mail."

Rome police said they had information the victim, Moroccan-born Josef Dahan, 30, had been a spy for the United Arab Republic some years ago and more recently for Israel.

The police said Dahan was an Israeli citizen. The Israeli Embassy said it had no record of him.

Police said the "diplomatic trunk" had almost certainly been used before for human cargo.

The Foreign Ministry sent for the U.A.R. ambassador to protest and to order the expulsion of the two embassy first secretaries who tried to load the trunk aboard a U.A.R. airliner bound for Cairo.

The Foreign Ministry called in U.A.R. Ambassador Ahmed Naguib Hasim and ordered embassy first secretaries Abdel Moneim el Neklawy and Selim Osman el Sayed out of Italy. They were arrested Tuesday night after they tried to load the trunk aboard a U.A.R. airliner bound for Cairo but were released because of their diplomatic immunity.

The Foreign Ministry also delivered a "most formal and energetic protest" against "violation of the international rules of diplomatic immunity and privilege."

The ministry said the two diplomats had engaged in "evident infractions of the Italian penal code."

KIDNAP FOILED. A policeman in Rome is shown looking into the trunk in which Egyptian Embassy officials stuffed a drugged Moroccan and tried to air freight him to Cairo Tuesday, according to police. The Egyptians were foiled when the victim, who was bound and gagged, came to and made muffled sounds. The trunk was equipped with a small seat and had been lined with cotton and straw. Air holes were drilled in its sides. (UPI Cablephoto)

No Progress Reported In Negotiations

Tieup Would Halt Service At 187 Points In Nation

CHICAGO (AP) — Railroad and union officials resume negotiations with federal mediators today in attempts to reach an agreement in a long wage dispute and head off a nationwide strike.

Some 140,000 non-operating employes of six shop craft unions are set to strike at 6 a.m. local time Monday. The walkout, a spokesman for the unions said, would halt service on 187 major railroads and terminal switching companies which handle most of the country's rail traffic.

Francis A. O'Neill of the National Mediation Board said no progress was made in Tuesday's talks with union and rail officials in a wage dispute which started nearly 18 months ago.

"We're just working back and forth," O'Neill said after meeting with officials. "We'll just keep plugging along."

A tentative agreement was reached Tuesday with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, representing about 28,000 firemen, hostlers and engineers on 163 major railroads.

The agreement, similar to one announced Monday by the 130,000 - member Brother of Railroad Trainmen, provides a 9-cent-an-hour wage hike for firemen and hostlers and a $1.75 increase per basic day for engineers.

M.W. Hampton, assistant president of the BLFE, said the proposed contract follows the recommendations of a presidential emergency board.

The shop unions have rejected as inadequate the emergency board's recommended increase of 27 cents an hour over a three-year period. Present hourly pay in the non-operating unions averages $2.58 and $2.63 in the six shop crafts.

Michael Fox, president of the AFL-CIO Railway Employes Department, has called the recommended hike inadequate because, he said, the shop workers possess special skills and are underpaid in relation to comparable workers in industry.

Wide Hunt Fails

'Con Artists' Get Woman's $6,000

Police said today two "smooth professionals" were responsible for working the ancient "pigeon drop" confidence game on a 70-year-old East Liverpool woman Tuesday, swindling her of her life savings of $6,000.

Despite a widespread search, the two young women escaped with the cash entrusted to them by Mrs. Goldie Wingett, 718 Cadmus St., a former resident of near Wellsville.

Mrs. Wingett was swindled by one of the oldest confidence games known to law enforcement officers — a promise that she would share in a large amount of money the two women claimed to have found if she put up her own money "to show good faith."

—:—

AN EFFECTIVE search for the two suspects was made almost impossible by two factors —the report of the swindle was delayed an hour after it was perpetrated and the descriptions of the two were meager, police said.

Officers said the two women apparently were smooth professionals from out of town who fled immediately in a waiting car while Mrs. Wingett waited hopefully and vainly for their return with the bonanza they had promised.

Mrs. Wingett told police it all began as she walked on E. 5th St. just east of Market St. She said she was approached by a young woman who pretended to be an old acquaintance and told her a story about finding a package containing a large sum of money. The young woman drew Mrs. Wingett into a doorway and

Constable Aspirant's Felony Arrest Alleged

Information that may prohibit a candidate from serving as constable even if he comes out ahead in a recount of Grant District general election ballots was introduced by a New Cumberland attorney Tuesday night at the Hancock County Courthouse.

Atty. Edwin F. Flowers submitted for the record information indicating a provision of state law would prohibit Glen Homer Logston of Chester from serving as Grant constable even if gaining enough votes in the recount to win a four - year term.

Acting in behalf of J. Carl Durham of Newell, one of four candidates in the race for Grant constable, Flowers asked that County Court note that he recognizes Logston's right to ask for a recount as a matter of law, but did not feel if he were one of the two highest candidates after the recount, he could be legally awarded a certificate of election.

He cited Section 310 of the City Nears Completion Of Shadyside Project

Street department crews may complete work today on three temporary improvements on Shadyside Ave. to help answer residents' complaints that the pavement is too narrow and lacks adequate space for school children to walk, Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said.

Slag has been placed on the west berm, where possible, to provide a walk for youngsters, the director said.

In addition, slag and other material was removed from the pavement near the curb on the east side and the sunken berm was built up on the west side to the level of the pavement. The temporary improvements were made pending a long-term solution on which city, county and township officials are slated to confer.

City Freeway Stretch Will Get New Fog Line

To help guide motorists in heavy autumn mists, the street department will paint a new fog line on the stretch of the Freeway from the north city limits the point where the four-lane highway merges with W. 3rd St. at Monroe St., Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey said today.

The fog lines will be painted along the edges of the pavement for both the inbound and outbound lanes, the director said. The State Highway Department already has painted the edge lines on the stretch from the city limits north to Route 170, Vodrey explained.

Council Gives TV Franchise 2nd Reading

Wellsville Group Also Acts On Water Meter Tampering

Legislation granting a franchise to Rego Industries, Inc., of Hoboken, N. J., for installation of a television cable service was given second reading by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

In other action, Council gave first reading to an ordinance prohibiting tampering with water meters in homes.

One more reading is required for passage of the TV franchise ordinance. The firm plans to install a community television cable service, charging householders for connecting to the line.

Other Firm Unreported

The franchise committee was asked at the last meeting to investigate a request from a Steubenville firm for a similar franchise but no report was presented.

After a lengthy discussion over one section of the legislation, Council gave first reading to the ordinance to prohibit unauthorized persons from tampering with water meters or to turn on water service to homes or businesses.

Anyone disconnecting, removing or tampering with any parts of a meter or breaking the seal from a meter will be subject to a fine of $10 to $50.

The legislation also prohibits anyone except authorized city personnel from turning on water service to any dwelling. It also provides that it will be unlawful for any person to prevent any water department employe from inspecting the plumbing in a household or prohibit the reading of a meter.

U.S. Escort Plane Shot Down In Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. F100 jet fighter plane which was escorting a reconnaissance plane over Laos has been shot down. Rescue operations for the pilot are under way, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced today.

The fighter was one of two aircraft escorting a RF101 photo reconnaissance plane in operations similar to those begun last summer at the request of the Laotian government to detect infiltration of North Vietnamese personnel and equipment into Laos.

All 10 Aboard Killed In Navy Plane Crash

ARGENTIA, Nfld. (AP)—All 10 men aboard a U.S. Navy patrol plane returning to fog-shrouded Argentia Naval Base were killed Tuesday night when it plunged into the sea.

The four-engine P3A Orion was approaching on instruments when it crashed three miles west of the field. Persons on shore reported seeing a fire and hearing an explosion.

Identifications of the men were withheld.

Board Approves $61,101 Budget

LISBON — A 1965 budget of $61,101 was approved by the Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night, an increase of $20 over the 1964 budget of $61,081. The budget, with the 1964 figures in parenthesis, is:

Part A — Salary and travel allowance — Elementary Supervisor Lorin Ruff, $8,900 ($8,900); High School Supervisor Urton Anderson, $8,650 ($8,650); school psychologist $8,900 ($8,900).

Part B — County Supt. James L. McBride, $10,300 ($10,300); secretary I, $4,320 ($4,320); secretary II, $3,000 ($3,000); county attendance officer, $3,151 ($3,151); educational meetings, $100 ($100); County Board of Education, $400 ($400).

COMMUNCATIONS, $950 ($950); postage, $450 ($450); office equipment, $900 ($900); office supplies, $1,800 ($1,900); printing, $800 ($700); repairs to office equipment, $100 ($100); board's share of teachers retirement, $3,800 ($3,790); board's share school employes retirement, $980 ($970); service fund, $500 ($500); miscellaneous expenses, $900 ($900); expense for attending educational meetings, $600 ($600), and testing and guidance, $1,600 ($1,600).

In other business, the board recommended that the county superintendent and executive heads go over their transportation schedule and make adjustments if unnecessary runs are overlapping in county school districts.

SUPT. MCBRIDE discussed the number of meetings he attends and those he is unable to attend and the benefits he derives from participating.

Roy Cashdollar, executive head of the Beaver Local School District, discussed his board's decision as to bus cutbacks and the trouble in the Rogers area.

He said his board plans a special election Jan. 5 to submit a levy that was defeated in the Nov. 3 election, which forced reduction of bus services.

A letter from Pete Marra of United Local School thanked the county board for making the school bus drivers training course compulsory and sent a list of 50 drivers of three school districts who took the course.

SUPT. MCBRIDE will attend the Ohio School Administrators Association and Ohio County Superintendents Association meetings in Columbus Friday.

The board discussed the county school boards and clerks meeting to be held in Salem Nov. 30. All county school board members except one are expected to attend.

Fred Lohman of Salineville R. D. 2, attendance officer, reported that he made 57 school visits and 40 home calls and traveled 1,166 miles last month.

Bills of $4,523 were approved and ordered paid. The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 15 at 8:30 p. m.

Court Upholds Hancock Ruling

CHARLESTON — The State Supreme Court Tuesday upheld a Hancock County Circuit Court decision refusing to reverse a judgment against the president of the Hancock County Court.

President William C. Graham had sought to reverse a December 1962 decision in which the lower court ordered that he pay the salaries of two employes in the Hancock County sheriff's office.

Sheriff Joseph Manypenny took the case to the circuit court after Graham refused to pay the salaries, included in the sheriff's budget.

Judge Frank Haymond's opinion held that the trial court did not abuse its discretion in refusing to vacate or reverse the final judgement made Dec. 14, 1962.

Columbus Innerbelt Expressway Opened

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The $85-million Columbus innerbelt expressway system became a reality today with opening of the final link around the downtown area.

Gov. James A. Rhodes, assisted by city, state and federal officials, cut a ribbon opening the $10.7 million final link of the Parsons Expressway and Fulton Expressway.

Swindle

showed the package which she said contained the money.

The young woman told Mrs. Wingett she would share the money if the local woman would put up her own cash "as evidence of good faith."

MRS. WINGETT and the young woman went to a teller's window at a bank, where Mrs. Wingett withdrew the $6,000 in $50 bills. The swindler talked with her familiarly at the teller's window and referred to Mrs. Wingett as "aunt," officers said.

After leaving the bank, Mrs. Wingett and the young woman crossed to the north side of E. 5th St. near Crook Alley, where they encountered another young woman — an accomplice.

The three walked together to a taxi waiting room in the ground floor of the Little Building. The two young women asked Mrs. Wingett to wait in the office while they went to a 5 and 10 cent store on Market St. "to pick up a package."

Mrs. Wingett said she waited for about an hour, but the women did not return and she concluded she had been fleeced out of her money.

Police said the two suspects evidently walked in the Market St. entrance of the store and then out another door onto E. 5th St., where they presumably had a car waiting for them.

—:—

MRS. WINGETT went to the bank where she had withdrawn the money and bank officials notified Police Chief A. J. Radeschi.

The chief made a hurried search of the area immediately, then learned that the women had disappeared an hour earlier with Mrs. Wingett's money.

Police said the woman who accompanied Mrs. Wingett into the bank was 20 to 25 years old, had dark hair and wore a tweed coat. The age of the other woman was unknown. She wore a brown coat and had a light - colored head scarf.

Chief Radeschi issued a general warning to East Liverpool residents today against such con games, particularly in the approaching holiday season.

He said pickpockets, shortchange artists and other swindlers are especially active in the rush prior to Christmas.

Putting Community Welfare First

A conscientious majority of City Council has indicated it will enact the legislation to continue the municipal income tax beyond its expiration date Dec. 31, assuring adequate local governmental services for the foreseeable future.

The action Monday night did a lot to dispel the clouds that had hung over the city's financial outlook. Barring unexpected shifts in position, the public can expect final action to continue the tax will have been taken by mid-December.

Although they realize that the city's operations rely to a large extent on the money the tax produces, it is not easy for an elected public official to vote for a measure that he knows might cause him trouble in the next campaign.

That's why particular credit as conscientious councilmen is due the members who supported the tax measure — Donald Hancock, Robert W. Sample, Donald E. Smith, James Cunningham and Norman Bucher.

Mr. Bucher opposed immediate enactment of the tax, explaining he feels it should be given three readings in order to allow the public to express opinions pro and con. But he hastened to add he favors continuing the tax.

The public approved continuance of the tax in its last test at the polls a year ago. But the specter of the past controversies over the tax, including wholesale changes in Council seats, must have been in the backs of the minds of the members who cast favorable votes Monday night.

Putting community welfare ahead of private interests or political aspirations is the mark of a conscientious public servant.

Token Raid

Things being what they are and what they have been, there's little reason to become excited about the latest raids in Hancock County.

Though slot machines and whisky were confiscated at Newell American Legion Post 114 and the Lawrenceville Firemen's Club, the swoopdown by sheriff's deputies hardly can be regarded as more than another of the token thrusts that have taken place from time to time—especially with a turnover in the administration of the sheriff's office due the first of the year.

Whether next January will bring a change for the better remains to be seen. Those who would like to see things cleaned up in the county hope so.

An Act Of Reprisal

Dialogues about party leadership following defeat in a national election are not peculiar to the national election of 1964, or the Republican party.

If this is kept in mind, along with one other fact, the controversy over Republican National Chairman Dean Burch will be easier to follow.

The chairman of a defeated party is on the defensive, especially if his party happens to have been defeated badly. It is necessary only to recall the names of Henry P. Fletcher, John D. M. Hamilton, Harrison E. Spangler, Herbert Brownell Jr., B. Carroll Reece, Guy George Gabrielson, Arthur E. Summerfield, C. Wesley Roberts, Leonard W. Hall, Meade Alcon Jr. and William E. Miller to know what has happened to chairmen of the Republican National Committee.

They have come and gone, like managers of baseball teams.

The other fact to be kept in mind when either political party is talking about its leadership is what the national chairman does.

The chairman is not a policy-maker. He is the executive officer of the organization known as the national committee headquarters. It is not because of his own political complexion that he is in danger of being cast out after a defeat at the polls but because of the complexion of the party faction that gave him his job.

The national committee chairman is the sacrificial goat of politics. If his party loses, he is eyed for a reprisal.

This is the argument about Republican chairman Burch — whether there is going to be a reprisal following last Nov. 3, or whether this time the customary reaction following defeat will be stifled.

Mr. Burch is not the issue. The issue is the party group that put him on his job—whether it will prevail or be prevailed against in the months ahead.

New Men–New Ideas

William L. Ryan, one of a few accredited experts on Russian internal affairs, is pointing to the importance of young leadership in Soviet affairs.

Personnel changes in the Kremlin, surmises a Ryan report for the Associated Press, presage a liberalization of Russian policy. Older men are moving on and out, and their places are being filled by a new generation.

The new generation came to maturity during the industrialization of Russia, not during the political upheavals that destroyed the monardhy and forced a backward society to adopt an idology conceived by Karl Marx after being shocked by the early crudities of the European factory wage system.

Members of the new generation are steeped in technical knowledge. They are pragmatic by inclination and experience. It has been their job to make things work, not to theorize about the comparative merits of ideas.

And thus it has come about that their rising influence now is pitted against the warning influence of one-time revolutionaries; that they are catalogued as modern-day "revolutionaries" in opposition to the old-time revolutionaries; i.e., Russian "conservatives."

"The younger men seem impatient to remove some of the restraints on Soviet economic development, even to the point of experimenting with capitalist methods," observes Ryan. In short, if it works it is worth trying. If it doesn't, it is obsolete, no matter how dear it may be to those who were its sponsors when it was novel and untried.

30 Years For The Johnsons

The wedding anniversary of Lyndon Baines and Lady Bird Johnson has special significance in 1964.

Not only is it their 30th year as man and wife, but in their 30 years thay have covered a course that only a few Americans can hope to cover — from obscurity to the White House.

Americans reserve a special regard for presidents and their ladies.

It had reached a sentimental climax for John and Jacqueline Kennedy. It had been a powerful sentiment for the Eisenhowers — "Ike" and "Mamie."

Before that, Harry and Bess Truman had embodied for millions of us the American dream of Mr. and Mrs. America making it all the way to the executive mansion in our behalf.

And before that it was Franklin D. and Eleanor, the Herbert Hoovers and Calvin and Grace Coolidge, another Mr. and Mrs. America team. And now in 1964 the Johnsons are the recipients of the special affection most of us reserve for our first family.

Theirs is a new image. The Southwestern school, with its scope and color, is strange to Washington and strange to most of us. But we're getting the hang of it as we go along.

Three decades of successful marriage, starting from scratch and going all the way to a landslide election to the presidency and the prospect of long-term residency in the White House calls for a "Yippee!" and a throwing of 10-gallon hats into the air.

Consider it done — and many more of the same.

Trifles

By Truman Twill

The English make a big thing of an insignificant dish called "trifle."

English trifle is a confection, according to a formal definition. It also is a left-over.

All it is, actually, is a piece of sponge cake with whipped cream or custard spooned over it. If it's done up with a flourish, the sponge cake first has been juiced up with a dash of wine or spirits. This is comparable to soaking stale bread in beer and serving it with mayonnaise.

The net effect is trifling — too insignificant to be worth noticing. The English, themselves, gave it that name. They don't know where the word "trifle" came from originally but they are agreed on what it means presently — something foolish and insignificant like trifle.

The meaning is precise as far as the item is concerned. Trifle is something without significance.

Though it has no counterpart in the United States, it has many equivalents — things with no significance that bob up on the table only because they fill up the gaps in a meal.

How else could those ridiculous packages of crackers that restaurants serve with soup be classified?

And boiled greens, apple sauce, cottage cheese, apple rings, pineapple rings and those sad little wedges of tired bread smeared with bland unguents that are passed around at cocktail parties?

What other name fits carrots, celery, watermelon rind pickles, broccoli, baked squash, lady-fingers, paper panties on lamb chops, whipped cream on pumpkin pie and those little cookies they pass out with the ice cream at banquets?

THESE ARE our trifles and may we be forgiven for the way we inflict them on one and all.

Hominy grits, mixed salad, pepper rings, boiled beets, plastic fluff on ice cream sundaes, stale nuts sprinkled on ice cream dishes, silver BBs sprinkled on Christmas cookies . . .

These are trifles, too, U. S. style and the less said about them the better.

All the English did, after all, was to invent a way to get rid of stale cake. Not that it ever was fresh. They learned how to bake it so it came out of the oven suitable for being trifled with. Otherwise, there wouldn't have been enough trifle to satisfy the demand for something to eat when there's nothing better in sight.

The Machinery Needs A Bit Of Work

Teamsters May Be Facing New Era

By Victor Riesel

Except those who work professionally for justice, few have been in the courts so frequently, in so sort a time, as has James Riddle Hoffa.

Victor Riesel

On the morning of Dec. 14, he will add more time to his tense tenure before the bench when he and his lawyers arrive at Cincinnati to plead orally before the U.S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals for a reversal of the eight year term received for tampering with a Federal jury.

However, even if he loses this appeal and the Supreme Court refuses to review the decision, he will not automatically lose the powerful presidency of the Teamsters Brotherhood. Tampering with a jury—or, as the sentencing judge Frank Wilson said, "tampering with the soul of a nation"—is not one of the crimes which make one ineligible to hold high union office.

So it will take more than the clanging of a prison cell door to convince Jim Hoffa to surrender that office. He does not play—or rather right—that way. That's apparent from corroborated reports that he has been wooing local leaders throughout the country. He has urged them to back his drive for retention of the $75,000-a-year presidency.

IF HE'S IMPRISONED next spring, there will be a special convention called to select a successor—but Hoffa plans to run, even from behind prison bars. He'll have his spokesmen. Now he's building a bloc of potential delegates to back them up.

He will not be without power as long as he is technically president of the sprawling 1.5 million-member union. He can hire organizers. He can fire regional chiefs. He can approve expenses or veto them.

The relatively new Teamsters constitution gives him vast powers until he is removed—by the convention—and even then, this steel - nerved infighter can go into the courts to stay any action.

So long as there is the slightest chance that he may retain power, the majority of the International Executive Board will hesitate to move against him.

His hope then is in building a fire behind them by rallying the second and third echelon officials — the union's middle management as well as its rank and file.

But their admiration for his "guts" is tempered by the strains of the human equation.

THE TEAMSTERS leadership and rank and file want to get off the spot, out of the limelight and into the mainstream. Collectively they are weary of being the driver of a huge truck on a long highway with the state trooper's squad car always on their taillight.

It's significant, for example, that in the Midwest these days many of them talk of the recent federal pardon received by Jack Jorgensen, head of Joint Council 32, in Minneapolis. He was pardoned last Oct. 16 and now has no "sheet," or official record, of a conviction, though he was convicted of extortion under the Taft-Hartley law some time ago.

This gives him a second chance. But more than that, it proves that the government is now "off the back" of the Teamsters officialdom.

THIS IS WHAT they want most for Christmas. They are, as the sociologists say, mostly middle class people. They no longer want any dualism because they are Teamsters and because Hoffa has taken on the world in general and the government in particular.

Few on the "outside" know of life inside labor. In hundreds of communities, there are regular weekly lunches of union officials. Often the Teamsters have been excluded because Hoffa has referred to the national AFL-CIO leaders as "stupid"—and worse. At these gatherings the committees are made up for visits to the functions of the state legislatures, the gubernatorial mansions and the White House itself.

It has been a long time since any Teamster has been welcomed by a President of the U.S.

THE LEADERSHIP wants "in" again. They want to return to the AFL-CIO and sit in the national planning sessions for wide unionization campaigns. They want to flex their organization muscles.

The rank and file truck driver is for "Jimmy" but no longer wants to be pointed out on his main street as "that teamster."

So if they must make a choice, they will go for one of the few men who have had the "guts" to stand up against "Jimmy."

It looks like the end of an era and the beginning of a new one marked by the toughest organizing combination of all—the "old" labor movement and the "new" Teamsters.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

A great deal has been said in recent days about a new county airport. Such an airport is desirable to the county, and even more so to the city which it would be near.

Aviation is a difficult subject to see in its proper perspective, especially to the non - flying public.

To bring the air age to its true dimension and usefulness, every city, however large or small, must have an airport, or road for aircraft to land as near as possible to its destination.

How useful would your automobile be to you if the nearest usable road were the Ohio turnpike? The same theory applys to aircraft.

Great distances can be traveled quickly by airplane. The time saved in many cases is wasted in trying to travel from the airport to ones final destination.

Remember also that only a small percentage of the total number of aircraft are of the large multi - engine type, requiring large airports. Further, these government subsidized airplanes will not even land on your county airport unless guaranteed enough business.

This $100,000 if properly used, could build or improve several airports in the county, which could bring aviation and the possible new business attraction to several communities.

I can think of nothing more attractive to a flying businessman considering East Liverpool or Wellsville as a possible business site than a good airport near the new business location.

Why not give backing and support to locally - owned airports and help to improve them. The benefits will be greater than the expense. Other communities are doing this, and with rewarding success.

Think of it in this way — if a new road is built in a community, almost everyone benefits in one way or another. Build a road for aircraft and everyone will benefit as we move on into the fast - growing air age.

U.S. Losing Veto

By David Lawrence

Who Will Pull The Reprisal Trigger?

Despite the outward signs that all nations fear a nuclear war so much that they will be hesitant ever to use such devastating weapons, the United States government and the governments of its allies in Western Europe nevertheless are today deeply engrossed in the problem of how to handle a nuclear war.

David Lawrence

The principal question at issue is who shall pull the trigger in reprisal if an attack comes. Up to now, it has been assumed that the president of the United States would have the veto. Now it looks as if there never will be an effective Western alliance under any such conditions and that the European governments will insist on an equal voice.

The question emerges because of the possible power of what is called a "multilateral force." It would consist of a fleet of 25 surface ships, each of which would carry eight Polaris nuclear-tipped missiles. These missiles are the same as those aboard Polaris submarines of the United States navy and have a war head of one megaton, which is equal to a million tons of TNT. These weapons are capable of destroying the 140 main cities of Russia.

UP TO NOW the world has been given the impression that most of the nuclear power would be exerted through missiles from bases either in this country or on the European continent.

Apparently the idea of firing nuclear weapons from the ocean is considered very effective because it would be difficult for enemy submarines or aircraft to distinguish the surface ships from the thousands of other merchant vessels traveling the high seas.

The theory is that, while Russia might make a surprise attack on the land bases and at the same time destroy a substantial part of the areas heavily populated by the Western peoples, it would be possible for ships at sea equipped with nuclear-tipped missiles to survive and, by retaliating immediately, to lay waste a vast area of the enemy country.

It's obvious, of course, that if any such retaliatory power can be exerted, the mere possession of such weapons would be a deterrent.

The whole problem has many perplexing aspects from a practical standpoint. The firing of the missiles from the surface ships would be controlled by a multilateral group of Allied officials, not on board any of the ships.

THESE WOULD represent the various countries which provide the crews, and the officers would take orders from the decision-making group. As of now, the countries participating in the preliminary experiments are the United States, West Germany, Britain, Italy, Holland, Greece, Turkey and, to a lesser extent Belgium. The exact control formula has not been worked out but will be the subject of intensive negotiations in the coming weeks.

The British prime minister is expected to discuss this subject with President Johnson in early December. One proposal has been made that a majority of the group should order the fleet into action. Another plan is based on the principle of unanimity.

The United States heretofore has insisted that it must retain a veto power over the weapons. Now there are reports that the United States might relinquish the veto at some future time.

It has been suggested, for instance, that wars of a purely European nature might arise and the United Sates might wish to remain aloof. What bothers Russia at the moment is the possibility that West Germany might have a considerable voice in such a multilateral force because the United States and West Germany are scheduled to pay 40 per cent each of the cost.

THE PRESSURE in Western Europe to persuade the United States to relinquish its veto power — something which, if ever agreed upon, would have to be authorized by Congress — has been building up steadily.

West Germany might some day decide to go its own way, as France has done under Gen. de Gaulle. Great Britain's skillful negotiators are trying to compose the differences, and they are suggesting that perhaps the multilateral nuclear force can be made part of a larger Allied nuclear command which would consist of British V-bombers and other Allied nuclear planes, as well as British Polaris submarines.

The secretary-general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has just declared at Paris that NATO must have full military and political control over the Allied multilateral nuclear force, and that this must be incorporated in the alliance.

So it does look as if no one man in the Western Alliance finally is going to decide who uses nuclear weapons. If the United States doesn't delegate some authority to NATO, as was recommended during the campaign by Sen. Goldwater, the likelihood is that each of the larger nations in Europe will develop its own nuclear force.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A children's choir, under the direction of Miss Ethel Peterson of East End, sang at the Orchard Grove Methodist Episcopal Church.

Wellsville was host to thousands from the tri-state district during the dedication of Main St. as a part of state Route No. 7.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Pvt. Charles Boso, husband of Mrs. Mildred Boso of Pleasant Heights, was assigned to the military police detachment of the Third Service Command at Camp Reynolds, Pa.

About 75,000 bushels of apples were picked and placed in the three cold storage rooms at the Hillcrest Farms, near Chester.

Snowflakes

The life of a snowflake fancier alternates rapidly between joy and despair.

The heavens drop an abundance of material, but happiness at catching a beautiful crystal dissolves into frustration if the flakes melts before the camera can record its lacy structure.

Wilson A. (Snowflake) Bentley, the Vermont farmer who spent years photographing snow crystals, philosophized: "Snowflakes that fall to the earth do not perish in vain. . .if the secret of their beauty is left behind in microphotography."

Bentley, who died on a snowy December day 33 years ago in Jericho, Vermont, made some 6,000 microphotographs of snowflakes. His pioneering studies became a standard reference for meteorologists, the National Geographis Society says.

"Snowflake" Bentley worked in a shed on a hillside pasture. In the course of 50 winters, he found that the best crystals occur during general storms, with a west or north wind blowing and the barometer reading from 29.60 to 30.20 inches.

Across the world, another snowflake collector took many of his photographs in a laboratory. He was Dr. Ukichiro Nakaya, a physics professor at Hokkaido University, Japan. During 25 years of work, Dr. Nakaya and his colleagues succeeded in duplicating in a cold chamber all the natural types of snow crystals.

Envelope Return Urged

Collections At $90,511 For Area's United Fund

An appeal for returns of envelopes in the United Fund drive to put the campaign past the goal was made today by fund officials, who reported collections at $90,511.

A goal of $110,000 was set for the campaign for money to aid 12 area agencies.

James Locke, drive chairman, said there is over $20,000 in potential contributions still uncollected, and expressed the belief the goal will be achieved.

"However, to reach the required $110,000 to operate these agencies, those who have not yet contributed will have to exceed their gift of last year," Locke said, pointing out two new agencies were added this year.

He said almost all returns so far have shown an increase over 1963.

The collections from small mercantile establishments is still lagging, but efforts for collections this week are being made.

Anyone with envelopes to be returned may phone the YMCA and they will be picked up, Carl Werner, secretary, said.

Hall China Co. has contributed $5,500 through the firm and employes, Locke said.

Crucible Steel Co. employes contributions are not yet complete, but are expected to exceed $23,000. The firm has given $7,500.

given permission to speak as a private citizen, objected to the section, declaring this gives the individual the right to check all over the house. He said it is not constitutional to have someone check all over the house if the homeowner objected.

Rose explained he realizes the need for a law governing tampering with meters and prohibiting persons from bypassing the meter for free water.

"I don't want to hold up what the director is trying to halt, and this is not personal, but it's not right," Rose said.

Councilman Nunzio Lombardozzi agreed that the ordinance could be used in this manner.

After some discussion, it was disclosed rules already on the books grant the safety - service director permission to inspect a home for such violations, but there is no penalty once someone is caught.

Incorporates Some Rules

The new legislation provides for the penalty and incorporates some of the rules already set up to govern the director in his operation of the city water system.

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, and Paul Todd, president pro-tem, were absent. Councilman Dwight MacLean was named by Council to preside.

Councilman Aguin Bowling, water chairman, expressed thanks to residents of Wellsville for approving new half - mill floodwall levy at the Nov. 3 election. A certificate was received from the Columbiana County Board of Elections showing the levy had officially passed — 1,581 for and 1,077 against.

Council also ordered legislation to authorize the sale of a tract of city - owned land now being leased by the Georgetti River - Rail Terminal. Lombardozzi, property chairman, said the committee had agreed to recommend the sale of the land to Council. Bids will be received, if the legislation passes.

Firm Wishes To Buy

The Georgetti firm is interested in purchasing the ground. Lombardozzi said a check was made with the consulting engineer concerning the value of the land to the adjoining sewage disposal plant. It will not be needed in the future and the engineer will put this in writing, he said.

Bowling commented he does not believe river frontage should be sold. MacLean concurred.

Lombardozzi said the engineer said the land between the Ohio River and the sewage plant never should be sold as the city may have to use it for expansion.

Lombardozzi said the only access to the city property is through terminal land.

Seeks Tree Ordinance

Councilman Walter Henthorne said he is searching for an ordinance on the books prohibiting the planting of poplar trees in the city. The roots go deep and clog sewers, he commented. He said this type of tree should not have been planted along section of Main St. between 12th and 17th Sts.

The work is being done by the city beautification Committee. The trees were planted about two weeks ago after the section next to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks was leveled.

Henthorne also asked the refuse committee to check on having the required money put into the refuse depreciation fund. He also inquired as to the status of a section of 2nd St. nearest the Ohio River.

Junked cars are parked in the area that appears to be a city street, he said. Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare said he will check the city maps to determine if the street runs back that far.

The street and light committee will investigate the possibility of changing the location of the school bus stop on Broadway to 5th St.

Henthorne moved that legislation be ordered to repeal Ordinance 1621, which authorizes the licensing of pinball machines. He said they are back in town. He said they are illegal in the state and should not be permitted. The motion died for lack of a second. He said he will present the motion again at the next meeting.

Harold Sneddon, manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., reported on the extension of two mains to serve two new car wash businesses.

Rose was directed to send a letter of thanks to Columbiana County commissioners for repairs made to the bridge crossing Little Yellow Creek at the floodwall entrance on Wells Ave.

A letter of thanks also was ordered for Richard Heidel of Cora St., East Liverpool, for promoting the pottery industry in the area with displays and talks.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

For the NEW POLAROID Color Pack Camera II (The Automatic 101)

Budget Priced

This new, economy styled, Color Pack II has most of the advantages of the first Polaroid Color Pack Camera, but costs less! It makes the same post card size color pictures in 60 seconds, black and white pictures in only 10 seconds.

The transistorized shutter makes perfect outdoor exposures for both color and black and white film. Indoors, the shutter can read the light and set exposure during the flash of a flashbulb. The Color Pack II weighs less than most 35 mm cameras, loads in seven seconds, and has a new, simplified film selector. Best of all, it is the camera for the budget minded buyer.

For More Versatility

The Automatic 100 is also on hand for those seeking versatility and elegant body styling. The transistorized shutter in this camera has greater capacity, can do everything the Automatic 101 can do, plus make black and white indoor pictures without flash and automatic time exposures up to several seconds. For only a little more, you can own the most advanced camera in the world.

Esther Bible Club's Topic Concerns Persian Queen

The life of Esther, queen of Persia, was reviewed by Mrs. Raymond Kulow of Hubbard for the annual Guest Night observance of the Esther Bible Club Monday in the social rooms of the First Methodist Church. About 125 were present, including members of the Bible Literary Club.

Concerning the portion of the Bible written during the Persian reign, she said there was no mention of God. She gave the historical background of Persia and told how Esther was chosen to become queen of King Xerxes. She compared that era with the present and how the power of prayer saved that nation and what it could do with the present world situation.

Mrs. H. T. Williams, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Kulow, who has authored several religious books and serves as director of the Senior Citizens League of Youngstown.

Miss Barbara Hall, accompanist for the high school choir, played piano selections "Consolation" (Liszt) and "The 18th Variation" (Rachmaninoff). She was introduced by Mrs. Robert Wotring, co-chairman of the program.

Mrs. Albert McLain, president, gave the welcome and a brief history of the club organized by Mrs. C. M. Metsch in 1925. The altar background featured an arrangement of gold-sprayed fall flowers and leaves and twisted green tapers.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table covered with a yellow cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow and maroon color mums highlighted with sprays of wheat.

Yellow tapers in silver candelabra completed the setting. Mrs. H. E. Taylor, president of the Bible Literary Club, and Mrs. McLain poured at the silver services. Mrs. Ira Findley of Alliance, a former member, attended along with Mrs. L. J. Heinbaugh of Poland who accompanied Mrs. Kulow.

Mrs. Harry Hicks, Mrs. L. B. Lemon, Mrs. Andrew Myers Jr. and Mrs. McLain served as greeters at the door. The social committee was comprised of Mrs. S. R. Bloor, Mrs. William Edgell, Mrs. John Vervin, Miss Gertrude Van Meter, Mrs. Wally Crooks and Mrs. John Bebout.

The next sessions are Dec. 21 for the Esther Bible Club, with Miss Phyllis Crook of W. 5th St., and Dec. 16 for the Bible Literary Club in the church social rooms.

Couple Married 67 Years Plans Little Attention

Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) Nicholson, 330 18th St., Wellsville, will quietly observe their 67th wedding anniversary Tuesday.

Due to the ill health of the couple there will be no family observance.

Nicholson is the only surviving member of the employes of the street car company. He set a record of 54 years employment with the street car and bus companies, being among the first conductors on the trolley cars in 1901. After the cars went out of existence, he was employed at the Bus Terminal for 15 years.

Rescue Mission's Group Gives President 5th Term

Mrs. Grace Lawrence, a member of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, was elected to a fifth term as president of the Community Rescue Mission Auxiliary at the meeting Monday night.

Other officers named were Mrs. Phyllis Marshall, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Betteridge, secretary; Mrs. Edythe Kittridge, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Jones, Mrs. Bessie Hughey, Mrs. Essie Awkward and Mrs. Lena Rea, Advisory Board.

Carl Mansfield, superintendent, reviewed the program for the "Harvest Home Week" which begins today. Mrs. Kittridge, music chairman, will present the men's quartet of the First Baptist Church Saturday night. It is comprised of Don Schussler, Charles Beaver and Bob and Dick Kittridge.

Mrs. Lawrence announced pumpkin pies are needed for the Thanksgiving dinner for children of the Bible Club and their parents to be served Saturday. Men's flannel shirts and socks and toys are needed for the Christmas party Dec. 19.

The group voted a contribution of $100 towards the purchase of a new commercial washing machine. Mrs. Lawrence read a poem, "Let's Be Thankful," and Mrs. Marian Stanway gave closing prayer.

Women of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church presented the program and served refreshments.

Mrs. Virginia Futhey read Scripture and a Thanksgiving story, "A Woman Counts Her Blessings." Mrs. Jo Ann Mourat sang "When He Took All My Sins Away" and "There Is No Greater Love." Mrs. Jo Ann Wright was accompanist.

The next session will be held Dec. 21 when the officers will arrange the program and members of the Grace Group of the Trinity Church, the social hour.

If you haven't a special refrigerator drawer or other covered space for storing eggs, put them in the refrigerator in their original covered container.

EXERCISE TO HELP YOUR HEART

When you do no exercise, a portion of your blood tends to accumulate in the veins of your legs. Eventually this accumulation causes aches, pains, swelling and, in severe cases, leads to varicose veins.

You don't have to be an athlete to improve your circulatory system. Moderate daily exercise each day helps take a load off your heart. Your physician will advise how much you need.

Fr. Warren Kosin, pastor of the host church, extended the welcome. Fr. James Culp, pastor of St. Phillip's church at Dungannon, was introduced as the new deanery moderator.

Mrs. Eugene Hay, president, announced a Diocesan Board session will be held Saturday at St. Patrick's church of Youngstown.

Tea was served by the Altar and Rosary Society. Mrs. Hay and Miss Josephine Furey poured at the silver services.

The next session will be held Jan. 30 at St. Paul's church at Salem.

3 Killed, 40 Injured In Belgium Explosions

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — A series of explosions wrecked an ink and varnish plant outside Brussels today. A fire department official said 3 persons were killed and more than 40 injured, 15 seriously.

Firemen said the blasts apparently started in a photogravure shop and fed on the inflammable store of ingredients used to produce inks and varnishes.

Workers told of being hurled through the air by the blasts, which set the plant ablaze and touched off nearby gasoline tanks. The factory is in a large industrial complex at suburban Uccle.

Merchants Laud Volunteer Aides In Yule Tree Job

The 55-foot spruce erected Tuesday in the center of the Diamond is a community Christmas tree in every respect because so many individuals and firms volunteered to work without compensation to make it a reality, the East Liverpool Merchants Association commented today.

The tree, part of the traditional holiday scene in the central business area, will be decorated in time for lighting on Friday night, Nov. 27, when a parade welcomes Santa Claus to the city.

Richard Sant of Park Way donated the tree and Tom Dubberly of Calcutta and Jim Lisk of Beechwood felled the big spruce. The Ohio Valley Gas Co.'s equipment and men loaded the tree onto a lowboy trailer provided by Mike Pusateri Excavating Co.

Pusateri's equipment moved the tree to the Diamond, where it was erected by Ohio Power Co. crews and equipment. Police aided with an escort and traffic control.

The Sayre Electric Co. crew supervised by Fred Jackson will trim the tree. Harold Allison headed the committee in charge of the project. Assisting were Harold Sneddon, Donald Baxter, Leslie Blumenthal and Dayton Allen.

South Side Unit Reviews Bylaws

Bylaws were read and reviewed for amendment at a meeting of the auxiliary of the South Side Athletic Club Monday evening at the Hookstown Borough building.

They will be given second reading at the December meeting and submitted for a vote at the January meeting.

Reports were heard on the club's recent all-stars banquet. It was decided to postpone all projects until after the first of the year.

Eight were present, including delegates from the Hanover, Frankfort Springs, Shippingport and Hookstown Districts.

A Christmas grabbag will be featured at the next meeting Dec. 21 with Mrs. Bevy Wright, president, in charge.

New Teen Center Due In East End

A Parkway couple and a group of friends are making plans to open a new youth center in the vacated Owen Hardware store, 519 Mulberry St., East End.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie Krafft, who will be mangaers of the teen - center, are installing kitchen equipment and readying legal details necessary to launch the facility.

Mrs. Krafft said plans call for the teen - center to be open each Wednesday night from 6 to 9 for youngsters 8 through 14 and Friday and Saturday nights from 7 to 11 for those 12-18 years.

A hired police officer will be on hand each night to supervise. Plans call for entertainment to include food, dancing, and perhaps a musical combo. Youths will be required to wear dress clothes when visiting the center, she said.

The center will open in about two weeks to teen-agers of East Liverpool and neighboring communities.

Mrs. Krafft said Mayor Merrill D. Hall, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey, Police Chief Americo Radeschi and County Juvenile Officer James Miller have promised their cooperation in helping open the center.

Dear Friends

To us, funeral services conducted by fraternal orders are always impressive. The rituals are beautiful and full of meaning.

We have had the high privilege of cooperating with many such organizations, and from experience we have learned their requirements.

Arrangements for group attendance are always carefully planned in advance to assure a nicely coordinated service.

Sincerely,

Richard C. Martin

United's Metzgar Rolls Up 150 Points To Lead In District Race

Potters Take Team Honors; 1st Since '55

Gene (Moe) Metzgar, United High scatback, closed out his high school career with another brilliant performance in his team's victory over Lisbon and walked away with scoring honors on the 1964 district football front.

Metzgar scored 14 points and gained 257 yards in 30 carries last Friday night at Lisbon to push his season point total to 150, which is 50 points more than scored by Wellsville's Chris Thornton who finished second in the scoring race.

METZGAR'S rushing total Friday gave him a net of 1,476 yards on the ground as he paced United to a 6-3-1 record under second year coach Al Carrino.

"Mighty Moe" scored 22 touchdowns and nine conversions this season. In one game, his performance was the best single game showing when he scored five touchdowns against West Branch and four in the Southern Local contest.

The 140-pound halfback, who stands 5-7, picked up 256 yards against Lisbon and 254 in the East Canton game for his best ground gaining efforts.

Crestview turned in the best job of defending against Metzgar allowing him only 43 yards.

—:—

METZGAR will now turn his attention to the basketball court where he was a regular on the United five last season.

The United star would like to attend college but has not made any choice as he will weigh several offers.

United, slow getting started this year after losing three straight before tieing Springfield Local, came on strong to win its last six games and finish in a tie for third place in the district standings.

COACH AT CARRINO (right) is shown with his prize pupil Gene (Moe) Metzgar, United halfback, who walked off with the 1964 District football scoring title with 150 points. Metzgar is a senior and will now turn his attention to basketball where he was a regular for United last season.

OTHER top individual scorers in the area this year showed Denny Burke of East Liverpool finishing third with 72 points, to lead the Potters in that department. Leetonia's Mel VanFossan was fourth with 70 points while Ray Harper of East Palestine scored 14 points in his team's final game to jump into fifth place with 58.

Marty Briceland and Fritz Ziegler, teammates of Metzgar, and Doug Hamilton of Stanton Local, finished with 54 points each.

Team honors went to East Liverpool, who although plagued with injuries, was guided to a 7-2-1 record under first year coach Bob McNea. A tie to New Pniladelphia and defeats at the hands of Steubenville Central and Alliance were the blemishes on the 1964 record.

—:—

THE TEAM title is the first won by East Liverpool since the Potters went undefeated in 1955 under Coach Bob Gibson.

Six of the district's 15 teams finished with winning seasons. Stanton Local could have won district honors but finished with a tie at Smithfield and wound up with the second best record in the district of 6-2-1.

East Palestine closed with a 6-3-1 mark while Midland was 5-3-1 and Leetonia won six of ten outings.

Scribe Says Bucks To Win It All Over Michigan; Irish Given Nod

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Unlimited substitution is being sought by many college football coaches for next season. There may be unlimited substitution among football forecasters, too, if last week's record isn't improved upon.

It brought the season's average to .695.

Hopefully, here are this week's picks:

Notre Dame over Iowa: Notre Dame has Huarte and Iowa has Snook, two of the season's best aerial artists, but Notre Dame also has a lot of others and Iowa doesn't.

Yale over Harvard: Chuck Mercein, the Yale fullback, is one of the best in the country.

Ohio State over Michigan: The Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl invitation hinge on this result with the Buckeyes favored despite Bob Timberlake.

Oregon State over Oregon: two of the season's surprise teams tangle with the Oregon Staters finding a way to stop Bob Berry.

Florida State over Florida: The Seminoles have the better line.

Kansas over Missouri: Annually one of the most rugged struggles of the year.

Arkansas over Texas Tech: Tech has the great Don Anderson but he won't be enough against the fierce Razorbacks from Arkansas.

Nebraska over Oklahoma: Providing the Huskers concentrate on the game and aren't dreaming about the Cotton Bowl game on New Year's day.

Southern California over UCLA: A cross-town rivalry with a slight Rose Bowl tinge.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

Friday Night

New Mexico over Hawaii, Miami over Vanderbilt, Wake Forest over North Carolina State.

Saturday

EAST: Boston College over Detroit, Boston University over Rhode Island, Columbia over Brown, Villanova over Buffalo, Holy Cross over Connecticut, Penn State over Pittsburgh, Dartmouth over Pennsylvania, Princeton over Cornell, Rutgers over Colgate.

SOUTH: George Washington over The Citadel, Duke over North Carolina, Tennessee over Kentucky, Louisiana State over Tulane, Maryland over Virginia, Syracuse over West Virginia.

MIDWEST: Illinois over Michigan State, Cincinnati over Miami, Ohio, Oklahoma State over Kansas State, Louisville over Drake, Purdue over Indiana, Tulsa over Toledo, Wichita over North Texas State, Minnesota over Wisconsin.

SOUTHWEST: Rice over Texas Christian, Baylor over Southern Methodist.

FAR WEST: Arizona State over Idaho, Arizona over Iowa State, Wyoming over Brigham Young, California over Stanford, Air Force over Colorado, New Mexico State over Texas Western, San Jose State over Fresno State, Utah over Utah State, Washington over Washington State.

Oak Glen, Weirton Meet On Gridiron Next Season

Oak Glen High School and Weirton have reached agreement on a new football contract, Principal E. Russell Slack of Oak Glen announced today.

Slack said the two Hancock County schools will meet in 1965 and in 1966 under the two-year agreement.

The first game will be played at Newell Memorial Field, home base for Oak Glen's Golden Bears.

Addition of Weirton, usually one of the strongest teams in West Virginia AAA ranks, follows a trend of adding the better district teams to Oak Glen's slate. Weirton also plays Oak Glen in basketball.

New Action Is Taken To Block Braves Move

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee attorney Francis J. Demet initiated an antitrust action in Federal Court Tuesday seeking to prohibit the Braves from moving to Atlanta until another major league franchise is obtained for Milwaukee.

Demet, who owns a single share of stock in the Braves but claims he represents 4,000 minority stockholders, called baseball a monopoly.

He asked U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan for permission to substitute a sweeping anti-trust complaint for an earlier motion he filed to force the Braves to remain in Milwaukee through 1965.

No hearing date was set for Demet's petition.

The Braves, ordered by the National League to fulfill a contract and play in Milwaukee County Stadium next season until moving to Atlanta in 1966, said earlier Tuesday they would accept a circuit court injunction barring a transfer in 1965.

Demet asked a permanent injunction restraining the Braves "from transferring the assets and baseball franchise from Milwaukee until such time as a comparable major league franchise, with comparable major league assets, can be located in Milwaukee County Stadium."

Celtics Slip Again, Drop 3rd Contest

The Boston Celtics shook up the rest of the National Basketball Association with 11 straight victories at the start of the season and now they're doing a pretty good job on their coach, Red Auerbach.

The Celts have lost three of their last four games and blown huge leads each time. The Baltimore Bullets took advantage of Boston's latest letdown Tuesday night, scoring a 102-99 victory over the Celtics.

In other NBA action Tuesday night, St. Louis outlasted Philadelphia 114-107 and Cincinnati turned back San Francisco 114-106.

Boston's first loss came against Philadelphia last Thursday in a game in which they held a 25 point lead with 30 seconds left in the third quarter. The next night Los Angeles overcame a 15-point deficit in the last 10 minutes to beat the Celts.

Boston had a 17-point halftime bulge against the Bullets and built it to 23 in the first four minutes of the third period. Then Don Ohl ignited a Baltimore burst that caught the Celtics with 4½ minutes left in the game.

Firemen, Police Pick Teams For Basketball Game

Police and fire department teams have been chosen for a basketball game Thursday nigh Nov. 26, at Memorial Auditorium that will be a preliminary to a contest between the famed Harlem Satellites and the East Liverpool High School coaching staff.

The fire department team will be comprised of Carmen Perorazio, James Walker, Adolphus Knott, Clarence Snediker, Russell Dray, Ralph Chapman, Nick Nicholson, James Curry, Donald Hancock, James Allmon and Robert Lynn. Asst. Chief Jerry Goodballet will be coach and Asst. Chief Alfred Van Dyne will be manager.

Playing for the police department will be Charles E. (Bill) Tice, Paul Blevins, Jack Walsh, William A. Devon, Jack Strobel, Orin C. Smith, Jeffy Adkins, Charles A. Winters, Ronald Brookes and Karl Samples. Chief A. J. Radeschi will be the coach.

The benefit is sponsored by Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29. Tickets may be obtained from any officer or from Reese Jewelers or the Louis - James Store.

Cincinnati beat the St. Louis Cardinals on their season series, 10 games to 8.

Dinner Set Tuesday

8 Awards Will Highlight Potter Football Banquet

Eight awards, highlighted by the 27th presentation of the Bill Booth Memorial trophy, will feature the annual banquet for the East Liverpool High School football team, Tuesday night at 6:30 in the Trinity Presbyterian Church.

The banquet, sponsored by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club, will honor Coach Bob McNea's squad which posted a 7-2-1 record this season, best mark since the 1956 team went on record with an 8-2 season.

Carl A. (Pop) Werner will make the annual Bill Booth presentation to the outstanding senior player on the team.

Other awards include, the most valuable player award, presented by the East Liverpool Review, best offensive lineman and back, best defensive lineman and back, best linebacker and most improved player.

There will be no guest speaker at the banquet. McNea will speak briefly and present awards.

Frank C. Dawson will be master of ceremonies.

Ted Burke, Nonpareil Club president, announced that the tickets for the banquet will be sold until Friday. Tickets are on sale at Clendenning Florists, Burbick's, Travelers Hotel, Louis - James Store, Pat May Barbershop and Sportsman's Barbershop.

A baked steak dinner will be served family style by women of the church.

Nonpareil Club Sets Meeting Tonight

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Riverview Greenhouse when final plans will be made for the annual football banquet. Movies of the Alliance - East Liverpool game will not be shown until next week because of the Lady Potter Boosters Club dinner for the team tonight.

Snook, Huarte Battle For 2nd Behind Rhome

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Snook of Iowa and John Huarte of Notre Dame are due to meet in a pitchers' battle Saturday but the best either can hope for is to wind up as No. 2 behind Tulsa's Jerry Rhome.

Rhome, with a half dozen or so passing records safely stowed away, is far in front in both passing and total offense, according to figures released today by the NCAA Service Bureau. With two games to go, it appears impossible to overhaul him.

The big statistical contests left are between Snook and Huarte for the runner-up spot in total offense and in the rushing department, where Brian Piccolo of Wake Forest has a lead that isn't safe yet.

The eight-game over-all figures are 2,541 yards for Rhome, 1,991 for Snook and 1,704 for Huarte.

In passing, it's Rhome 185 completions on 262 attempts for 2,330 yards and 27 touchdowns. California's Craig Morton is second with 165 completions.

Piccolo leads the runners with 929 yards total. Donnie Anderson of Texas Tech is second with 877 and Ray Handley of Stanford third with 864.

Stars In Winter Loop

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Ed Connolly of the Boston Red Sox doubled in a run and pitched a six-hit shutout as San Juan defeated Ponce 4-0 in a Winter League baseball game Tuesday night.

Named Co-Captains

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati quarterback Brig Owens and tackle Bob Taylor will be co-captains for UC's football game with Miami University here Saturday.

Snell Shoots At 3:50 Mile

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — Peter Snell, the lean, dedicated master of the world's middle-distance men, has his sights set on a near-incredible 3:50 mile — and retirement.

And it appears that all he needs to achieve the goal is a little competition.

The dark-haired, bony-faced New Zealander, a double gold medal winner in the Tokyo Olympics, trimmed three-tenths of a second off his own world record Tuesday, lowering the mark to 3:54.1.

What's more, he did it eased up, loping in with an easy, unhurried stride some 15 yards in front of the rest of an international field on a cinder track at Western Springs Stadium.

Snell, a 27-year-old salesman who owns most of the world's middle - distance records, promptly announced that he planned to campaign for a 3:50 mile in the next few months, then retire.

Killebrew Will Get Sultan Of Swat Crown

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association announced today that Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins will be awarded the Sultan of Swat crown at the organization's Tops in Sports banquet Jan. 11.

Killebrew hit 49 home runs during the past season.

Gilchrist Fired By Bills, Headed To Another Club

By LEE COPPOLA
Associated Press Writer

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Controversial Cookie Gilchrist, the American Football League's leading rusher and 1962 Player of the Year, appeared headed for either the Oakland Raiders or the New York Jets today after being discarded by the Buffalo Bills.

The Bills, pace-setters in the Eastern Division and hoping to win their first AFL title, fired the $30,000 a year, 250-pound fullback by placing him on the waiver block for $100. They said they wouldn't withdraw the waivers either.

Thus Gilchrist was available for the $100 to the AFL club with the poorest record. The Boston Patriots and the Jets put in a claim. Houston, Denver and Kansas City, which had prior rights because of worse records this season, said they weren't interested in the 29-year-old fullback.

The Oakland Raiders, who discussed the situation Tuesday night, said they would wait until Wednesday to see what the other clubs did. The Raiders, with a 2-7-1 record, could grab him unless Houston (2-8-0) and Denver (2-8-0) changed signals. If the Raiders also pass, Cookie will go to the Jets.

Gilchrist, when he got the word of his axing, said he would like to play with either the Jets or Raiders.

"His only concern is himself and how much yardage he can gain," said Buffalo Coach Lou Saban.

"Certain incidents have taken place over the last six weeks which were uncalled for, in my opinion," added Saban. "I felt we had to go without him. The club is more important than the individual's gain."

Gilchrist said the move was "inevitable."

"This is my third year and about the fifth time they've tried to trade me. It's apparent they didn't want me around," said Gilchrist.

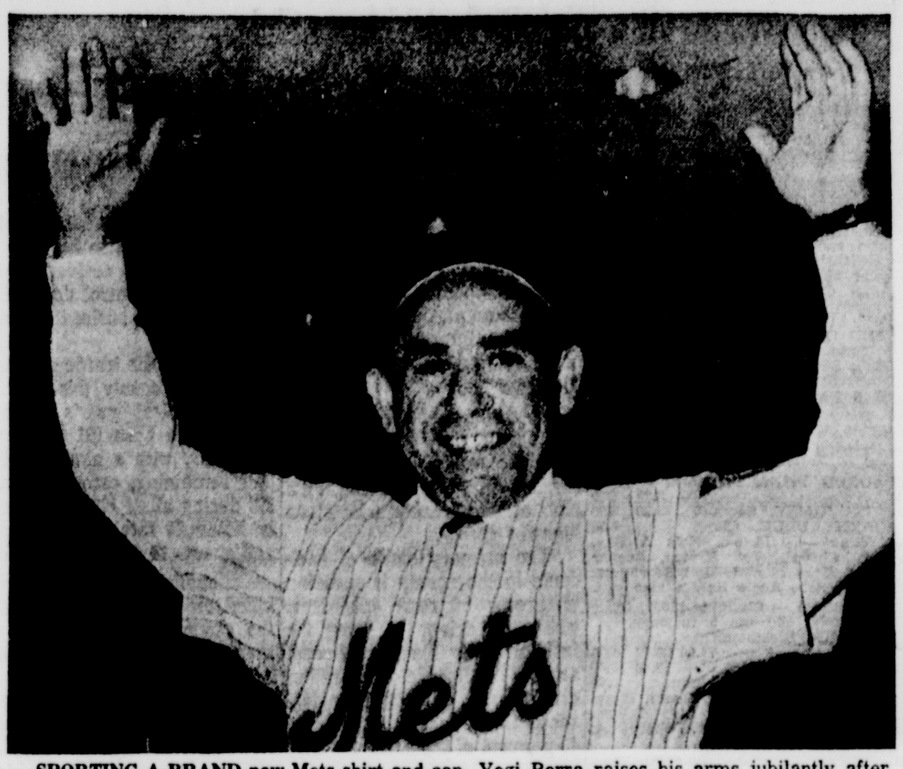
Gilchrist, top rusher in the league with 751 yards in 162 carries, gained only 31 yards Sunday when the Bills (9-1) lost their first game of the season, 36-28, to the second place Patriots (7-2-1).

The Bostonians are only 1½ games behind the Bills. Each has four games to go, including a climactic clash between the two at Boston Dec. 20.

Wray Carlton, a 220-pound, eight-year veteran, was taken off the injured reserve list to replace Gilchrist.

Gilchrist was signed by the Bills after being suspended by Toronto of the Canadian Football League.

He was chosen the AFL's Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 1962—his first season with Buffalo—after gaining 1,096 yards rushing.



SPORTING A BRAND new Mets shirt and cap, Yogi Berra raises his arms jubilantly after signing a two-year coaching contract with the New York Mets Tuesday. The former New York Yankee also may be used for pinch-hitting duties. (UPI Telephoto)

Inks $40,000 Contract

Yogi Signs As Mets' Coach, May Swing Bat For Stengel

NEW YORK (AP) — Old Yankees never die. They just become Mets. Yogi Berra is the latest to cross over the bridge, following in the footsteps of Casey Stengel and George Weiss.

Berra will be a coach under Stengel, his old boss. If he can get into shape in spring training, Yogi will be placed on the active list as a player-coach.

This badly kept secret became a fact Tuesday when the Mets made the announcement at a news conference. Weiss, the club president, and Berra were on hand. A special telephone hookup to Glendale, Calif., was set up to bring Manager Stengel's comments across the nation.

They even had a Met uniform for Yogi. Naturally, it had No. 8 on the back.

The publicity staff thought of everything. It even had a message from Chris Cannizarro, the Mets' catcher who was the old No. 8. He bowed out in style, waiving his rights to No. 8 in a message from San Leandro, Calif.

Berra will be the highest-paid coach in baseball. And probably in football, too. He will get a reported $40,000 from the Mets and $25,000 from the Yanks in what Weiss described as "severance pay."

Yogi had made a more fortunate deal as a special field consultant after the Yanks fired him as manager the day after the World Series.

Under the terms of the Yankee contract, Yogi could take a job elsewhere and still get the $25,000. Under those circumstances it almost pays to be fired.

"I am happy to be coming here," said Berra. "I'll do whatever Casey wants. I'm going to work out in spring training. I may play if I can. I did catch some batting practice last spring."

On the telephone hookup from California, Stengel was in his usual form.

"Very, very delighted to have you, Yogi," he said to the man he used to call his assistant manager. "I know you'll be very successful...I looked up your record and it took two pages...Don't get into many jams. I don't want you to go fight that fellow Clay."

In 18 years with the Yanks, Berra had a lifetime batting average of .285, hit more home runs than any catcher (313), and added 45 more as an outfielder for a total of 358. He played in 14 World Series and 15 All-Star games.

The Yanks made Berra a player-coach in 1963 and in 1964 he took over as manager when Ralph Houk moved up as general manager. He won the pennant but lost the series and was fired the next day.

Members Of Famed LSU Golf Team Hold Reunion

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — While Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus were studying the rolling contours of Oakbourne Country Club for their down-to-the-wire duel for the 1964 golfing money championship, a class reunion of sorts was going on in another foursome.

It was 1946 when Gardner Dickinson Jr. and Luca Barbato, host pro for the $25,000 Cajun Classic Golf tournament, began playing golf for Louisiana State University.

They got together again Tuesday in a practice round for the Cajun Classic and briefly relived the days when their LSU golf team—which also included Jay Hebert, who like Gardner, is now one of the fixtures of the play-for-pay circuit — won two NCAA championships.

"That's been so long ago we'd like to forget what year it was," said Barbato, whose older brother, Mike, was coach of the LSU squad in those days.

Mike Barbato, now pro at a New Orleans country club, will also play in the Cajun Classic, which will have another brother act—Jay and Lionel Hebert, two regular members of the tour.

Only $319 separate Palmer and Nicklaus in official earnings on the PGA circuit this year and the 24-eyar-old Nicklaus hopes to overhaul Palmer in the money derby. Both have picked up more than $100,000 on the circuit this season—more than anybody has ever won in the past.

NCAA Ruling Will Stir Battle With AAU Again

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association put into effect today a rule that athletes at its 620 member schools may not compete this winter in open meets not sanctioned by the United States Track and Field Federation.

The policy was adopted by the NCAA council in New York Nov. 4. Robert F. Ray of the University of Iowa, NCAA president, announced today it is in effect. It does not apply to this year's cross-country competition.

Invoking the rule signals resumption of the NCAA's scrap with the Amateur Athletic Union over the sanctioning of track and field meets. The late Gen. Douglas MacArthur negotiated a truce between them in January 1963, but it expired with the end of the Olympics in Tokyo.

AAU spokesmen in New York were not available for comment.

The AAU contends it has the sole right to sanction open meets in the United States. It has refused to sanction events which accept formal sanctions from the USTFF and other federations aligned with the NCAA. The fight has been going on more than three years.

Beaver Local Football Banquet Set Tonight

Bob Dove, head football coach at Hiram College and former standout at Notre Dame, will be guest speaker, when the Beaver Local High School and Public School football players, are honored tonight at a banquet in the high school gymnasium. The dinner will begin at 6:30 and is sponsored by the Boosters Club.

Irish Guard Honored As Top Lineman

By The Associated Press

Husky Jim Carroll, captain of Notre Dame's No. 1 college football team, was named Lineman of The Week by The Associated Press today for his "magnificent" play against Michigan State.

The 225-pound guard and linebacker from Atlanta made 15 tackles and intercepted a pass as the unbeaten and untied Fighting Irish crushed the Spartans 34-7 for their eighth straight victory.

He helped stop Ed Cotton in the first quarter when Michigan State, at the time trailing by only a touchdown, gambled on a fourth and one situation on its own 49 and lost the ball on downs. Notre Dame took over and drove to its second TD.

"Carroll was magnificent," said his coach Ara Parseghian. "He played his best game even though he wasn't 100 per cent coming off a leg injury."

Carroll's 15 tackles gave him 120 total for the season which compares to his 59 in both the 1963 and 1962 campaigns. The 21-year-old senior was born in Jonesboro, Ark., and won a Hering Award from Parseghian in spring training as the "most consistent guard."

High Jumper Due Surgery

BOSTON (AP)—Cassius Clay expected some welcome company in the hernia surgery ward at Boston City Hospital today in the person of high jumper John Thomas.

Thomas, 23, who won a silver medal in the high jump at the Olympics in Tokyo, was to be operated on for a hernia which has bothered him since before the Olympics.

Thomas put off surgery to be sure he would be able to jump at Tokyo.

A spokesman for the hospital said Clay is "getting along very well" in his recuperation program but there still is no decision on when he will be able to leave the hospital.

Sgt. Rizzo Addresses Club

Rotary Hears Discussion Of Traffic Mishap Causes

Speeding with disregard to road conditions is the leading cause of traffic accidents in Columbiana County, Sgt. Ralph J. Rizzo, commanding officer of the State Highway Patrol post at Lisbon, told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Ranking close behind in cause are driving left of center and failure to yield the right-of-way, Rizzo said in addressing the club at the Travelers Hotel on highway safety.

"The primary cause of accidents in the county is speeding in excess of road conditions, when the driver is going too fast for either the type of road, amount of traffic or weather conditions. No chronological speed figure is established, but 40 per cent of the accidents here involve only one car," the officer related.

"Drivers should take into account the hilly terrain and two-lane roads in the county. Eight of every 10 drivers involved in an accident here are from this county."

When left of center is established as the cause of an accident, it usually means the car drifted over the middle line on a curve or the driver became careless.

Some drivers travel the same route every day and form bad habits, like coming to a "rolling or sliding stop" at a stop sign. Eventually, they are involved in an accident for failure to yield the right-of-way, Rizzo explained.

The 37-year-old officer pointed out the task of his post is to attempt to eliminate or reduce traffic accidents, but duties of the patrol range from investigating aircraft crashes to reporting violations of the Public Utilities Commission laws.

Investigating accidents on highways and patrol duty keep the Lisbon staff busier than anything else.

Rizzo said the traffic accident rate in the county this year is exceeding last year's pace. There have been 921 accidents this year, with a month and a half remaining, compared with 898 during all of 1963. The county listed 28 fatalities last year and shows 18 this year to date.

Nationally, there were 43,400 killed on highways in 1963 and the economic loss was more than $7 billion, Rizzo pointed out.

Because of limited manpower, the patrol attempts selective enforcement, or assigning officers to patrol high accident rate zones. Statewide, there are 875 highway patrolmen and nearly 5 million automobiles, he said.

"We have set up our radar equipment on the Wellsville-East Liverpool super road and caught drivers doing 80 and 90 miles an hour, even though we use marked patrol cars and there are signs saying radar ahead. I shudder to think what they do when we are not there on patrol duty.

"The towns really buzz when we operate our radar equipment. The day we come down here and make no arrests will be a good day, as this will mean drivers are becoming safety-conscious."

What are the best deterrents to traffic accidents?

"Good roads, proper enforcement and education of drivers," Rizzo said. "Good drivers never stop learning. They should master the job of driving within posted speed limits and weed out their bad habits, such as driving when tired and taking chances."

The officer said the East Liverpool area has been a "good recruiting area" for the highway patrol. Dennis O'Farrell of here has finished the Patrol Academy in Columbus and is assigned to Akron, William Dunn of Williamsport is assigned to Fremont and John Detchon, a Beaver Local graduate as is Dunn, is studying at the Academy.

Rizzo was introduced by Ralph A. Finley, who served as program chairman for John W. Eiferd Jr.

Alvin T. Babb, president, inducted William G. Billingsley of Calcutta as a new member. There were eight guests, including Ed Heald of Canton, head of the Stark County Historical Society, who is visiting the city to obtain data on the late President William McKinley, the subject of a book he plans to write.

Durocher, LA Claim Self-Defense In Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Leo Durocher and the Los Angeles Dodgers, answering a $200,000 damage suit, say that if the former Dodger coach hit a fan it was only in self-defense.

The suit was filed Aug. 26 by Robert J. Hallsworth, 29, who charged that Durocher struck him on the jaw outside Dodger Stadium after a game.

The Durocher-Dodger answer, filed in Superior Court Tuesday, contended that Hallsworth made "an assault" against Durocher and that the coach "necessarily defended himself."

Brown Eyes Another Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown's seventh carry next Sunday against the Green Bay Packers will mark another National Football League plateau for the Cleveland Browns' great running back.

It will be Brown's 2,000th attempt to burst through an enemy line, and never before has an NFL player made that many tries. Brown, who broke the 1,000-yard mark for the sixth time last Sunday, has gained more than 10,000 yards since coming into the league eight years ago.

Brown needs just two more TDs to top the mark held by the legendary Don Hutson who scored 105 in 11 seasons.

Brown, of course, tops the NFL rushers with 1,081 yards in figures released today by the league. Chicago's Johnny Morris is the top pass receiver with 77 catches. Bart Starr of Green Bay tops the passers and Lenny Moore of Baltimore is the leading scorer with 15 touchdowns for 90 points.

List Grows Longer

Rhodes Adds 12 More Items To Assembly Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The list gets longer and time grows shorter for this special session of the Legislature. Gov. James A. Rhodes has added to the agenda for a third time, listing 12 topics for consideration.

There now are 38 items for possible legislative attention. Even working through the traditional holiday season, this Legislature has at most about six weeks left. It expires with the year 1964 at midnight Dec. 31.

What's more, Rhodes can continue to add to the agenda if he wishes.

Called by the governor, a special session takes up only what he says. Rhodes put out the initial agenda two months ago, added to it twice last week as the session started, and made his latest additions Tuesday.

This is the box score as today's floor sessions got under way:

House: Bills introduced—23; passed—12. Resolutions introduced—7; adopted—5.

Senate: Bills introduced—6; passed—2. Resolutions introduced—6; adopted—4. Governor's appointments confirmed — 45; rejected—none.

Bills passed by both houses—1; resolutions adopted by both—3.

The Senate passed its second bill Tuesday and sent it on to the House. It would authorize sale of 354 acres of Mansfield Reformatory farm land to Empire Reeves Corp. The steel firm needs the site for expansion which eventually could amount to $50 million, Sen. Roy B. Gardner, R-Mansfield, said.

Senators also consented to two of Rhodes' appointments despite opposition from Sen. Charles J. Carney, D-Youngstown, who termed them "political."

The appointments, as trustees of Central State College, involved Cleveland attorney John H. Bustamante (approved 24-6) for a term through mid - 1972, and Ohio Wesleyan University political science teacher Arthur L. Peterson (23-7), also chairman of the Civil Rights Commission, for a term through mid-1973.

Rhodes' appointees now constitute a five-man majority on the board.

Three bills were introduced in the afternoon session of the House.

One would allow Ohio's 14-month-old Board of Regents to accept land, construct buildings on it, and lease both back to a public college or university. The proposal is designed to aid Youngstown University.

The second would permit creation of port authorities by townships singly, or in combination with other townships, cities or counties. It was said by a Rhodes spokesman to aid the Sandusky area.

The third would authorize an increase in one per cent city income taxes by majority vote of residents at general, primary or special elections. At present, 55 per cent approval is required at general elections and 60 per cent at primary and special elections.

House leaders conducted an evening skeleton session for the third time to receive a bill that would lift some of the restrictions in the program of aid to dependent children of unemployed parents. These are that the parent have worked for a total of a year in his life, and 13 weeks in the last two years, and be unemployed two weeks before applying.

The bills involving port Authorities, municipal income tax and aid to dependent children of the unemployed deal with subjects made part of the agenda Tuesday by Rhodes, who told newsmen earlier in the day: "As of today we are not expanding the session."

Other subjects added to the call include raising the pay of cabinet appointees, replacing the Pardon and Parole Commission with an adult parole authority, appointing an authenticating officer to sign some documents for the governor, combining the natural resources department's divisions of reclamation and forestry, and improving retirement benefits for public employes in 1967 and thereafter.

Roommate Vanishes; Auto And $15 Missing

Shirley R. Stout of Weston, W. Va., a resident of the Ceramic Hotel, told police his roommate vanished early this morning and he then discovered his auto and a wallet containing $15 also had disappeared.

Stout said he wakened at 3:30 a. m. today and found his roommate was missing. Checking, he found the wallet with $15 and various papers was missing from his trousers, Stout reported. He also blamed the missing man for taking his black 1956 Ford coupe from a parking place on E. 4th St. outside the hotel.

Stout furnished police with the name of his roommate and a description and indicated he expects to file charges, officers said.

Work Continues On Home Barn

LISBON — The new cattle barn at the county home is expected to be under roof by the end of this week, according to Galen Greenisen, president of the Columbiana County commissioners.

The new building will replace the old barn which was destroyed by fire May 25.

Paul Crosser is the general contractor with the cost of the barn running approximately $40,000 equipped. Crosser's bid was $31,753, plus $1,500 for glazed tile in cattle and milking quarters.

Starline, Inc., of Harvard, Ill., received the contract for equipment on a bid of $7,078.

The county commissioners were paid $47,500 for insurance on the old barn and $11,000 for the contents.

Testimony Continues In Suit For $30,000

LISBON — Testimony continued today in Common Pleas Court in the trial of the $30,000 personal injury and damage suits of Vera E. and Frederick Birkhimer of Salem R. D. 1 against Marjorie Starkie of Lisbon R. D. 4, as a result of a two-car collision Jan. 31, 1961, in Salem.

Mrs. Birkhimer asks $25,000 for partial disability and her husband asks $5,000 damages and loss of his wife's services. The jury sworn in Tuesday by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard consists of Sally Porter, Ruth E. Baker and Helen Steele, East Liverpool; August Wikman, Salem; Ada Price, Lisbon; Dorothea Calvin, Columbiana; Elizabeth Green and Mary Sweeney, Salineville; Frances Ferris, New Waterford; Edward Durk, Negley; Darlene S. Votaw, Leetonia, and Ronald Brunner, Alliance R.D. Lois Swaney of Rogers is alternate.

Cleveland Faces Tax Problem In Population Shift

CLEVELAND (AP) — The heavy shift of population from the city of Cleveland to suburban areas in the past 15 years is perhaps the greatest cause of tax problems faced by the city and some of the suburbs.

That is one of the conclusions in a report on a year-long study released Tuesday by the Citizens League of Greater Cleveland.

The report summed up the situation this way:

"Greater Cleveland is like a great spreading tree. The limbs of the tree are growing vigorously, but the trunk is ailing. And, speaking tax - wise, even some of the limbs have diseased spots."

The study was made by the Greater Cleveland Tax Policy Study Commission appointed by the citizens league and was financed by the Greater Cleveland Associated Foundation.

While the city of Cleveland accounted for more than two-thirds of the Cuhaoga County population in 1950, more than half the population now lives in the suburbs, the report said.

3rd Victim Claimed

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—An automobile - truck collision that claimed two lives near Coolville early Tuesday claimed a third victim later in the day.

Joseph H. Ferrebee, 63, of Chauncey, died in a hospital here of injuries suffered in the crash on U. S. 50 in eastern Athens County.

European Common Market Tariff-Cut Lists Exchanged

GENEVA — The European Common Market has aluminum, home sewing machines, watches, some aircraft, trucks, Italian silk and still other items into the itemized bargaining part of the so-called "Kennedy Round" of tariff negotiations. These are the items the Common Market does not want to be subject to full - sized tariff cuts.

Britain has proposed coal, lead, zinc, jute, some textiles and those plastics that already have a low tariff for the itemized bargaining.

United States officials here have not made their proposals known generally for fear of protectionist reaction at home. It is assumed, however, that the U. S. list will include some chemicals and textiles among other products of the traditionally protectionist U. S. industries.

The three trading powers — The United States, Britain and the Common Market — are the bargainers who count most at the trade negotiations here because they are much the largest among the dozens of countries which will join in the final tariff-cutting.

On the great majority of industrial products there will be an across-the-board tariff reduction of some commonly agreed amount — possibly 50 per cent. But first the industrial countries are going to negotiate over which of their tariffs will be subject to the big cut and which will not.

Tuesday 17 countries submitted lists of items that, they said, they do not want to subject to full - sized tariff cuts.

A country may invite bargaining on an item by not listing it as well as by listing it. Switzerland, for example, has offered to make no exceptions to the general cut, but said that she will not cut her levies on gasoline and other fuels because she considers them to be revenue levies, not protectionist tariffs.

Nation's Capital Gets New Chief Of Police

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's capital is getting a new police chief.

He is Deputy Chief John B. Layton, 52, who will succeed Chief Robert V. Murray, 60, on Dec. 1 in the $23,000-a-year job. Murray is retiring for health reasons.

Layton's promotion to head of the 3,000-man Metropolitan force was announced Tuesday by District commissioners.

West Virginia Offers Plan To Fight Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP) — West Virginia governor - elect Hulett Smith and Gov. W. W. Barron have handed a four - point anti-poverty proposal to R. Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The state Democratic leaders said Shriver's response Tuesday was "sypmathetic and generally favorable."

After the two conferred with President Johnson on the future of the Appalachian aid bill, Smith called on Shriver to provide these anti - poverty projects in the state:

— A residential center to train 1,000 or more young men under the job corps.

— A women's job corps to train young women for employment or homemaking.

— Assistance in providing remedial reading teachers for all the state's 55 county school systems.

—Acceleration of federal loans to low - income rural families and small businesses which plan to provide jobs for the long-term unemployed.

Both Smith and Barron voiced optimism about the future of the Appalachian bill after their meeting with the President. They declined to say what Johnson said.

Driver Given 10-Day Term

Charles R. Powell, 21, of West Point, arrested Tuesday night on a charge of driving without a license, was given a 10 - day County Jail term today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when he admitted he never had obtained an operator's permit.

Queried by the court, Powell admitted he had been driving for a year without obtaining a license. Powell was arrested at 7:39 p. m. on the Freeway by Patrolman L. E. Richard, who also cited the auto's owner on two charges, police said.

Ronald E. Stoffel of Riverside Park was charged with acquiring a motor vehicle without obtaining a certificate of title and improper auto registration.

Stoffel pleaded guilty to both counts. He said he bought the 1954 model car a month ago in Wellsville for $10 and had been "too busy fixing it up" to transfer the title or registration.

"That junker should be off the highway," the judge told Stoffel. "If you get rid of the car, I will dismiss these charges."

The judge then continued the case until Tuesday morning at 9 to permit Stoffel to dispose of the car.

Estroy Evans, 35, of Cleveland was given a suspended 10 - day term in County Jail when he pleaded guilty today to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident early Tuesday on the Chester Bridge. Judge Chertoff ordered Evans to pay the court costs.

Authorities said Evans was taken into custody after his car was involved in a collision with an auto operated by Helen Jean Higgins, 19, of Negley R. D. 1.

After entering the guilty plea today, Evans told the court he did not know his auto had struck another car.

City Driver Forfeits; 4 Fined At Toronto

A city motorist forfeited an appearance bond and four area drivers were fined in Jefferson County Court at Toronto Tuesday night.

Dennis C. O'Neil, 310 Jackson St., forfeited $25 on a charge of passing without the assured clear distance.

Fined by Judge Augustus Evans Jr. were Charles E. Workman of Irondale R. D. 1, $20 and costs for speeding; Walter Pearson of Irondale, $5 and costs for no muffler; Irma L. Moralee of County Rd. 68, Hammondsville, $25 and costs for no driver's license, and John H. McCauley, 1248 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, $25 and costs for overload and $5 and costs for a defective muffler.

2 Held Without Bond In Robbery-Slaying

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two east side men are being held without bond pending trial on first degree murder indictments in the robbery-slaying of Gilbert Rollins, 38, in his grocery store Oct. 27.

The pair — William Hubbard, 19, and William Cartier, 31,— pleaded innocent Tuesday shortly after the indictments were returned by the Cuyahoga County grand jury.

Car Kills Woman, 75

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 75-year-old west side woman, crossing near West 18th Street and Denison Avenue to mail a letter, was killed by an automobile Tuesday. Dead is Mrs. Matrona Szewczwk.

PRESCRIPTION PRICES

How are prescription prices determined? We have a policy in this matter which we believe to be ethical and fair. We do not offer bargains in prescriptions—there is no cut-rate way to health. Nor do we pretend to under-sell. Prescription prices simply are determined by the cost of the ingredients and operating expense. The prices we charge are as low as good professional service and effective drugs will allow. It will be a privilege to serve you.

Rev. Monte May Elected Salineville Ministers' Head

SALINEVILLE — The Rev. Monte May of the Monroeville Assembly of God Church was elected chairman of the Salineville Ministerial Association at a meeting Saturday at the Methodist Church.

Rev. May succeeds Gerald Finnie, minister of the Church of Christ. The Rev. Allen Rose of the Methodist Church was retained as secretary-treasurer.

Finnie conducted business. A farewell was held for Finnie, who left the community Tuesday.

The Rev. Donald Ralston, new pastor of the Calvary United Presbyterian Church, was welcomed.

Plans were completed for the union Thanksgiving service next Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Monroeville Assembly of God Church.

Rev. May will preach. The Rev. Delbert Miller will offer the opening prayer and the Rev. Donald Ralston will have the Scripture reading. The Rev. Allen Rose will give the benediction.

Each participating church will provide special music. Half the offering will go to the Tri-State Hospital Chaplaincy fund and the other half to the local benevolence fund.

A $5 donation was made to the Parent - Teacher Association for a school safety gate.

The new schedule was arranged for the ministers to serve as chaplain at the rest home. The schedule for presenting prayer at the opening of Village Council meetings also was set up.

The next meeting will be announced.

After the Alaskan earthquake, a 35,000-square-mile region around Kodiak and Anchorage sank two to six feet.

Social Security 'Old-Timers' Due 300th Check In January

January will be a special month for a very select group of people — that month they will receive their 300th monthly Social Security benefit check.

This special group consists of persons first entitled to monthly Social Security benefits for January 1940, the first month that benefits were payable under the Social Security Act, Walter I. Kimbro, Social Security district manager in East Liverpool, said today.

Kimbro said there probably are a few in the East Liverpool area but he was unable to identify them without checking some 12,000 accounts.

In addition to this 25th anniversary of monthly benefit payments, 1965 will also mark the 30th anniversary of the Social Security Act, Kimbro continued. This act was signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in August 1935.

Beneficiaries under the old-age and survivors insurance program of the Social Security Act as well as the disability insurance program, which was added in 1954, have received benefits totaling more than $113.5 billion from January 1940 through June 1964, Kimbro added.

Monthly benefit payments made during the program's first year, 1940, totaled $15.8 million, and went to 102,941 aged workers, their dependents and survivors.

The Social Security program has shown a steady growth during this 25-year period. At the end of June 1964, some 19.5 million people were receiving monthly benefits. Benefits payments during the 1964 fiscal year, from July 1963 through June 1964, totaled more than $15.8 billion.

Social security benefits are paid out of two separate trust funds maintained in the U. S. Treasury. These funds have been built up with the Social Security tax contributions of employes, their employers, and self-employed persons.

Money not needed for the payment of benefits and administration of the programs is invested in interest bearing obligations of the U. S. Government. The interest is added to the funds.

The old-age and survivors insurance trust fund totaled $19.7 billion at the end of fiscal year 1964, and the disability insurance trust fund, established in January 1957, totaled $2.2 billion, Kimbro concluded.

American Consumers Lauded By Executive

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A Cleveland finance executive says American consumers have "a remarkable record of financial dependability" despite having run up a record $60 billion installment debt. The executive, Jack Lampl Jr., president of the Sun Finance and Loan Co., of Cleveland, spoke Tuesday to the National Association of Independent Sales and Finance Companies meeting here.

"Basically, the whole credit structure is built on the character of the consumer," Lampl said, "and his strong backbone has never been more apparent. He said a study shows the Youngstown, Ohio, area as one where installment collections seldom vary regardless of economic conditions.

Motorists Reminded On Opening Of Road

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Highway Patrol has reminded motorists that Interstate 71 between Columbus and Cincinnati will not be open to traffic until Thursday—the official ceremony day set by Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The patrlo said the superhighway should be ready for traffic about 9 a. m. Thursday.

Three Bodies Recovered In Plane Mishap

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—Three bodies have been recovered and the search resumes for the fourth—the pilot of a single-engine plane that crashed into Lake Erie near Kelleys Island.

Wayne R. Davidson, 42, of Cleveland, the pilot, is still missing. State Highway Patrol skin-divers Tuesday recovered the bodies of three passengers from the Cessna 172 four-seater—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gumber of Parma Heights and Richard Hagedorn, 30, of Cleveland.

The four left Strongsville airport Monday to go duck hunting on the island. The plane had been rented by Davidson, a licensed pilot since 1951 with over 500 hours of flying time.

The plane slammed into Lake Erie and sank in about 30 feet of water as it approached the Kelleys Island landing strip.

Skin divers removed the bodies Tuesday, then moored the plane at the spot where it was found. It was to be taken from the lake today.

Three Coast Guard boats, a private tug with three divers and the Highway Patrol helicopter and divers took part in the search.

Mr. and Mr. Gumber left their four small children with a relative to make the hunting trip. Hagedor was the father of three. Gumber, 32, was a service manager for a foreign car dealer and often made hunting trips with his wife Jeanette, 30.

Davidson's wife, Roseina, and their 20-year-old daughter, Mrs. Alice Fox, described him as a good pilot who refused to take chances in the air.

2 Killed, 2 Injured As Scaffolding Breaks

MOUNT VERNON, Ind. (AP)—Two men were killed and two others, including an Ohioan, were injured Tuesday when a construction scaffolding broke and plunged six stories. Killed were Albert Baerenwald Jr., 31, and Vernon Popingo, 58, both of Luverne, Minn.

The injured Ohio man was Roger Coombs, 27, of Bethel. Also injured was Francis Trufar, 33, of Columbus, Neb.

Coombs and Trufar are listed in serious condition at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, Ind.

White Pastor Indicted In Negro Girl Attack

CHIPLEY, Fla. (AP) — The Washington County grand jury has indicted a white minister from Slocomb, Ala., for the rape of a Negro girl.

The Rev. Trim Finch, 46, listed as pastor of the Free Will Baptist Church in Slocomb, was named in the indictment, returned Tuesday after two days of testimony.

Police said the 16-year-old alleged victim had been hired by Finch as a baby sitter.

Family Faces Court Over Bus Protests

mile limit, the board policy on transportation at hazardous sites, the need for safety protection and whether County Board of Education approval is required on transportation policy.

Schwartz had questioned the board at a public meeting Monday night attended by some 500 residents, but the board indicated it preferred to have legal counsel in answering questions which Shwartz said may lead to court action.

Shwartz was shown the 1964 transportation budget in which the board is lacking $6,000 from its original appropriation as a result of state fund cutbacks.

—:—

A LETTER from Howard T. Short, assistant supervisor of pupil transportation for the Ohio Department of Education, confirmed a previous stand by the state board.

Short wrote the walk limit set by the board is within the jurisdiction of the local board, whether students walk to a bus pick-up or directly to their assigned schools.

The school officials advised the attorney they were concerned for the safety of the children, but that parents, according to state law, are responsible for transportation within the mile. Sidewalks and highway and street safety is the responsibility of the village and township authorities, not the school, the board members stated.

—:—

SHWARTZ WAS informed the county board had not been advised of the board change of policy on transportation because it had not met since the change, and that further, according to state regulations, the county board's approval was not required.

Shwartz had met with Rogers area residents later Monday night, and reported on his plans to confer with the board officials and Brokaw.

He urged the parents not to demonstrate, block buses or to trespass on school property.

There were 14 mothers in the Rogers walk yesterday.

Most of the mothers were taking their youngsters to school in autos.

—:—

ATTENDING yesterday's conference besides Brokaw were Roy Cashdollar, executive head; Harry Greenwood, board clerk; Paul Dailey, board president, and Supt. McBride.

Shwartz questioned the board about the possibility of parents leasing a bus for transportation. He said he had urged the people he represented to vote for the proposed 5.4-mill levy up for consideration in a special election Jan. 5.

Shwartz also asked about installation of a blinker warning light at the hazardous places along the highways, and was told the village of Rogers or state would have to provide such a signal.

The MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville is in charge of arrangements.

Recount

West Virginia Code that provides that "no person convicted of treason, felony or bribery can be elected to any office under the law of this state."

The candidate is not guilty of treason or bribery but "we call attention to records of the office of Circuit Court that would indicate Glen Homer Logston was indicted for a felony of breaking and entering the American Legion Home in Chester with intent to steal, at the January term of Circuit Court in 1950, and on Jan. 24, 1950, pleaded guilty to the charge."

Flowers said Logston petitioned for probation, stating he was 20 years old at the time of the offense, and acknowledged a breaking and entering of Post 121, and also acknowledged in his petition for probation that on Aug. 9, 1949, he entered the tavern of Chuck Pittenger and stole $100.

He also related that Logston was charged with petty larceny Sept. 9, 1955, and pleaded guilty to that offense when arraigned before Squire John D. Herron Sept. 24 that year.

The information was not submitted for motion or decision as to whether a certificate of election could be awarded, because at this point in the recount, Logston has not won the election, Flowers told the group.

But he explained he will ask County Court to deny Logston's certificate under the provision of state law should the candidate win the constable's post in the recount.

County Court recounted Precinct 9 in Congo, and also recounted Precinct 8, but because of questions on ballots that are to be referred to the prosecutor, will have to recount Precinct 8 again, officials said.

The top two candidates in the race are to receive four - year terms as Grant constable. The official canvass gave the posts to Police Chief Harold Davis of Chester, with 2,077, and Durham, with 1,988. However, Logston trailed Durham by only one vote, with 1,987, and Charles Glendenning had 1,797.

The recount will continue Thursday night at the Courthouse.

SALINEVILLE — Terry Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Barber of Hayti, a first grade student at Salineville School, suffered a laceration of the head in a fall from a bridge railing on Main St. Tuesday afternoon. He was taken to a physician by Police Chief Earl Laney.

Boat Marina Land Leased At Wellsville

A Salem firm has been awarded a contract for lease of land in Wellsville for development of a boat marina contingent on approval of the Army Corps of Engineers and other legalities.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare said at a meeting of Wellsville Council Tuesday night the Board of Control accepted the bid from Charles Eichler, owner of Charley's Boats & Motors on Route 14 near Salem.

The land was put up for lease the past summer. One other bid was received.

Council authorized leasing of the land after checking into proposals that the ground be offered to a civic group free for development. The land is located between the flood wall and Little Yellow Creek near Wells Ave. The property committee recommended it be offered for lease for development.

Eichler owns ground on the opposite side of the creek. The water is backed up into the creek deep enough to provide a natural harbor.

Eichler offered to lease from the city for $300 a year. The bid specifications call for a 10-year lease, with two five-year option clauses.

The other bid was $310 a year from Jack Young and Ralph Fusco of Wellsville.

In Constitutional Change

Tenure Will Be Extended For Chamber's Officials

Because of the revised constitution and bylaws adopted in a membership vote Oct. 28, the terms of the officers and members of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will be extended through June 30, instead of expiring Dec. 31.

Action to extend the terms was taken at the board's monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The new constitution places the Chamber's operations on a fiscal year basis extending from July 1 to June 30 — a change from the former calendar year system extending from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31.

The modernized version of the Chamber's constitution and bylaws was adopted in a vote of the membership at the annual fall meeting last month.

Under the new arrangement, the slate of officers headed by Robert E. Boyce, president, will remain in office under terms extending to the end of June.

Because he is being transferred to Toledo, Donald U. Honicky, commercial manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., resigned from the board. The board accepted the resignation "with regret" and extended Honicky a vote of thanks for his service to the Chamber.

The board noted that the action brought to three the number of vacant seats in the 21-member group. Previous vacancies resulted from the death of Glenn B. Roberts and the resignation of Wendell H. Vodrey.

The Executive Board was empowered to recommend three for the vacancies. One unexpired term runs to the end of the fiscal year, one is for 18 months and the other is for two and a half years.

The new constitution provides the board will name a nominating committee for trustees at its April meeting, the election will be held in May and the results will be reported to the board in June.

Shortly after the election of new trustees, the board will meet to elect its officers for the year begining July 1.

The board received a letter from the Ohio Chamber explaining a meeting has been scheduled Tuesday at Columbus to discuss a series of proposed state constitutional amendments that may appear on the primary ballot in May.

Boyce reported on the annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber Nov. 10-11 in Columbus. E. R. Chandler, executive manager, gave a report on the fall membership dinner Oct. 28.

Reporting for the East Liverpool Merchants Association, James Locke stressed the businessmen's recent activities and plans for the annual community Christmas program.

A report on recent activities of the Community Improvement Corp. was presented by George A. Shaw, the newly-elected president of the industrial development group.

Paul Blair reported for a delegation which attended a recent meeting in Lisbon on establishment of a Vocational High School.

Firemen Pick Six Trustees

SUMMITVILLE — Six trustees were named at a meeting of the Franklin volunteer fire department Tuesday night at the fire station. The trustees for 1965 are:

Summitville — Ernest Phillips and Paul Dowdell, re-elected for two years. Holdover trustees are Thomas Sevek and Dean Dowdell.

Millport — Ralph Cox and Warren Laughlin, re - elected. Paul Crawford has one more year to serve.

District 5 — Forrest Young elected, replacing Paul Dangelo.

District 6 — Wade Clark, re-elected for two years.

Roy McKarns in District 3 and Floyd Binsley in District 4 have another year to serve.

Plans were made for a swiss steak dinner for members and families Jan. 13.

Phillips and Clark will attend a meeting of the County Firemen's Association tonight at Salineville.

The next meeting of trustees will be Dec. 2. Firemen will collect for the Muscular Dystrophy drive in Franklin Township.

Glenmoor Legion Donates $50 To Midget Gridder

A contribution of $50 to the Glenmoor Rams midget football team was approved at a meeting of Glenmoor American Legion Post 736 Tuesday night at the post home.

Robert Buckley was named new service officer, succeeding Roland Webber, who is now employed in the Virgin Islands with the Potters Lumber Co.

Plans were made to give a basket of groceries to a needy family for Thanksgiving.

Commander Ed Bowyer set Thursday night at 8 for a meeting of the executive committee to name two new trustees. Russ Turner, adjutant, was appointed to head a five - member committee to revise and recommend changes in the post bylaws.

Fred Morgan and Turner were co-chairmen of the post's Veterans Day banquet committee.

A committee was named to plan the children's Christmas party. It includes Buckley, Jim Graham, Ralph Lockhart, Don Jones, Jay Mathess and Bill Fletcher.

Lunch was served by Bill Wilson. The next meeting will be Dec. 1.

Rock Hurling Vandals Given Police Warning

Police warned rock - hurling young vandals today their actions may cause death or serious injury.

Citing an incident Sunday night in which a woman's auto on the River Rd. was hit by a stone thrown from the Chester Bridge, officers said the rock was only about the size of a marble but the momentum gained in a 40-foot fall caused a dent about four inches in diameter in the metal roof of the car.

A stone hurled through an open car window could cause a driver to lose control and bring on a crash, police said. Or the rock might shatter the windshield, obscuring the driver's vision and resulting in a collision, police added.

Probe Opens In Plane Crash Fatal To Two

CINCINNATI (AP) — An investigation into the crash of a small plane that plunged into the Ohio River, killing its two occupants, was under way today. The plane, a single-engine Cessna 150, was hauled from the river, just east of Cincinnati, late Tuesday afternoon.

The craft dived mysteriously into the river Monday shortly after takeoff from Lunken Airport, killing James D. Standifer, 23, Cincinnati and formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., and James D. Stenger, 20, Indianapolis.

None Injured As Gas Blast Levels House

WAYNESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— A house being prepared for a new family was leveled by a gas explosion yesterday. There were no injuries since the former occupants moved out last Thursday, Police Chief Dexter Martin said.

Martin said a cap on a main gas line was missing and the explosion came 20 minutes after the pilot light in the furnace was lighted by a workman.

Seeks Conference

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mayor Walton Bachrach wants the governors' conference to meet here in 1966 or 1967 and has asked City Council to draw up an official invitation. Bachrach said a strong plea in getting the governors here will be completion of the city's $10 million convention hall by 1966.

Auto, Trucks Are Involved In Collisions

A three - way crash in Calcutta and a two-truck collision near Columbiana Tuesday left all drivers uninjured, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported today.

A car driven by Juanita Fay Larkins, 16, of Calcutta and two trucks were involved in the mishap at the intersection of Route 170 and the Smiths Ferry-Calcutta Rd. yesterday at 4 p.m.

The girl, headed east in a 1963 coach, pulled out in front of a northbound truck on Route 170, driven by Otto Lemley, 62, of 280 W. Clark St., East Palestine, the patrol said.

The truck hit the auto, which spun around and struck a halted truck driven by Paul Jon Hemsley, 26, of Glenmoor, who had stopped, headed west, on the Smiths Ferry - Calcutta Rd.

The girl's car received extensive damage. She was cited to traffic court at Lisbon for failure to yield the right of way.

William Harley Cook, 70, of Leetonia was arrested by the patrol following a collision of his truck and another on Route 164 just south of Columbiana at 6:20 p. m.

Officers said Cook, headed south, made a left turn in front of a truck driven by Richard Souder, 37, of Columbiana, and the two vehicles collided.

Man Gets Suspended Sentence On Resisting

James F. Atwood, 1524 Wyoming Ave., was given a suspended 30-day jail term on a charge of resisting arrest and fined $25 and costs on an intoxication charge after Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff convicted him of both counts in a hearing today.

Atwood was arrested early Tuesday morning on Lisbon St. by Patrolman J. A. Walsh. He pleaded not guilty to both counts at arraignment Tuesday morning.

Atwood denied being intoxicated and blamed his "dizzy" condition on medication mixed with six or seven bottles of beer. He admitted resisting arrest, but termed the incident "a scuffle and not a battle."

Bob Kuzava, former southpaw screwball pitcher, has been signed as a Milwaukee scout for 1965.

Honicky Goes To Toledo

Columbus Man Heads Ohio Bell's Office Here

Stephen Eibling of Columbus has been named to succeed Don Honicky, Ohio Bell Telephone Co. commercial manager in East Liverpool, who has been appointed commercial manager at Toledo.

Eibling, who has been commercial representative for the utility at Columbus, joined Ohio Bell in 1962 as outside representative following his graduation from Ohio State University.

He was named commercial representative for the utility at Columbus, joined Ohio Bell in 1962 as outside representative following his graduation from Ohio State University.

He was named commercial representative in November 1963. He is married to the former Nancy Devroude of Columbus. They have a son, Andrew, 2½ months old. The two appointments are effective Dec. 1.

Honicky began his telephone career in Dayton as an outside representative in the commercial department in 1956. In 1958 he became a sales representative in the marketing department and was named sales engineer in 1960. In 1961 he moved to Findlay as commercial manager and came to East Liverpool in August 1962.

STEPHEN EIBLING

While here he served on the Board of Directors and was past co-chairman of the United Fund, was a director of the Rotary Club and was on the Board of Trustees of the Community Improvement Corporation and the Chamber of Commerce.

Honicky and his wife, the former Barbara Lee Crowe, live in Calcutta Acres. They have two children, Lynn and David.

Post 4 Hears Gifts Report

Purle Smith reported on results of the "Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" program at the meeting of American Legion Post 4 Monday night in the Siff Building. It is the annual program to provide gifts for hospitalized veterans.

The committee for the post Veterans Day dinner was commended by the membership after Dave Sakol, chairman, reported on the affair held Nov. 9.

New pension plans were discussed at the meeting of the County Council Friday night, Ray Cunningham reported.

Isaac Jones reported on the meeting of Veterans City Council when plans for a proposed new veterans' memorial were discussed.

Charles Boso, commander and manager of the Ohio State Employment Service, discussed job opportunities for veterans.

Harry Aivalotis said he is achieving good results in obtaining pictures of post members, particularly in wartime service.

R. W. Johnston, 40 & 8 grand cheminot, turned in 100 Post 4 members at the conference of the 10th District Grand Voiture Sunday at North Georgetown.

Lawrenceville Legion Sets New Year's Fete

Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 launched plans for the annual New Year's Eve party at a meeting Monday night at the post home. Charles Huffman, commander, presided.

The committee will meet again Monday night to complete plans. John Dee Smith of Newell was accepted as a new member. Dewey Price announced a committee has completed cleaning of the parking lot and trash cans.

Guy Michaels, service officer, gave a report. Lunch was served. The next meeting will be Monday, Dec. 7.

Restaurant Changes Hands At Hanoverton

HANOVERTON — Mrs. Dorothy Beadnell of Hammondsville has acquired the Avalon Restaurant on Route 30 and will take over the business Monday.

Mrs. Jennie Smith has operated the restaurant for seven years. Mrs. Beadnell was formerly cook and manager of a Hammondsville restaurant.

East End Legion Receives Report On Membership

Fifty-four attended a meeting of American Legion Post 374 Monday night in the post home in East End, when Paul Beck, first vice commander, announced the membership has reached 384.

James Wallover, service officer, reported Nick Como and Bill Means are patients at the Sandusky Soldiers Home, Creed Morris at the Veterans Hospital in Butler, and Dave Marlette at City Hospital.

The post made donations to the county foster home children's fund and to Boys Town in Nebraska. Robert Poynter, commander of the 3rd Division, reported county membership has reached 63 per cent of its quota.

James Cregar, commander, reported on an initiation of the 40 & 8 Society at North Georgetown. Clinton W. Boso was named "Member of the Week." It was announced the Veterans City Council will meet Friday night at City Hall.

A movie, "The MacArthur Story," was screened. Cregar named John Ruhe, John Long and Roy Cusik as a committee to move the post flagpole at Springgrove Cemetery.

There will be a dance Saturday night at the post home, with the Tempos to furnish music. A total of 150 attended the Veterans Day banquet Saturday night when Merle Brady was speaker.

Ohio Fair In 1965 Will Open Aug. 27

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1965 Ohio State Fair will begin Aug. 27 and run for 11 days, despite requests for an earlier starting date and a shorter run.

Lancione Picked Again As House Minority Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bellaire attorney A. G. Lancione, who has represented Belmont County in the legislature since 1947, again will be House Democratic minority leader when he begins his 10th term in January.

Lancione was chosen, 34-28, Tuesday in a closed caucus of House Democrats preparing for the regular session which starts Jan. 4. His opposition came from Cleveland attorney Michael A. Sweeney, who will be starting his fifth term.

Known as "A. G.," to those around him, Lancione became minority floor leader two years ago with a 25-24 caucus victory over James J. McGettrick, who later resigned to become Cuyahoga County sheriff.

Democrats will have 20 more seats in the House in 1965 as a result of the Nov. 3 election, but Republicans still will have a 75-62 edge.

At Lancione's request, members unanimously re-named Rep. Richard M. Christiansen. Mansfield attorney, as minority whip, a post once held by Lancione. The whip rounds up party members for important votes and otherwise keeps things organized.

Lisbon Parish To Hold Thanksgiving Party

LISBON — The annual public Feather Party — Thanksgiving Festival — will be held Monday from 8 to 11 p.m. at the St. George Parish Hall.

A tradition in the parish, proceeds from this year's affair will go towards the St. George building fund for a new parish hall and six classrooms for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

4 Of 5 Who Fled Cuyahoga Jail Now In Custody

CLEVELAND (AP)— William J. Moralevitz, 25, of suburban Lakewood, one of five men who sawed their way out of the Cuyahoga County Jail last week, was captured by FBI agents on the near west side shortly before midnight Tuesday night, leaving only one of the escapees still at large.

Earl E. Brown, agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said Moralevitz was asleep in an automobile in a garage behind a tavern when the agents found him. He offered no resistance.

Moralevitz was held on charge of housebreaking and burglary when he escaped Nov. 10.

Edward J. Ward, 21, of Cleveland, an escapee who surrendered to a Cleveland Plain Dealer reporter Monday night, was charged Tuesday with aiding a federal prisoner to escape. He was ordered held under $25,000 bond at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Clifford E. Bruce.

Private Hearings Set On Budget Proposals

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Nassau County residents who are too shy to stand up at a public budget hearing and voice their opinions will be able to have their say and keep their composure.

County Executive Eugene Nickerson will open his office tonight on a first-come, first-served basis for citizens wishing to sit down in private with him and offer suggestions.

"Some people are shy, you know," Nickerson said. "This led me to believe that they would participate this way."

Regular public hearings on the budget proposals will be held Nov. 27.

Wellsville Band Awards Slated

The fourth annual awards dinner for members of the Wellsville High School Band will be held Saturday at 6:30 p. m. at the First Christian Church. Some 150 are expected to attend.

The dinner is sponsored by the Wellsville Band Parents Association and is given in recognition of the work of the students during the past marching season.

A highlight of the affair is the announcement of the four outstanding bandsmen, one from each class.

The senior award is voted on by the entire band. A dance for band members and their dates will be held at the MacDonald School auditorium from 9 to 11:30 p. m.

Bobby Blue will be the disc jockey. Band parents will serve as chaperones.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I only iron when I feel like it, so I don't sprinkle clothes ahead of time.

Instead, I put four ice cubes in a washcloth and place this in a shallow bowl on the end of my ironing board.

Since the terry cloth is rough, it just moistens the top fibers of the material so it is excellent for spot-dampening articles which only need a little bit of dampening.

If I accidentally iron in a wrinkle, or want to dampen a very small area, I remove one ice cube and use it. This way I can dampen a small area without getting too much of the garment wet.

HAZEL.

DEAR HELOISE: If either of us does not live through "65," thank GOD for letting us live through "64". . .

J.M.

-:-

And may I say that I thank the Good Lord, too. Aren't friends wonderful?

I love each of you. Thanks for your letters, and for taking the time to let me know what your troubles are.

I send each of you a special blessing, and I know the Good Lord does.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: This hint is for anyone who is ill and also for those who take care of them.

Hang a shoe bag, large or small, on the wall by the bed!

Children can roll up a color book and stick it in a pocket; crayons, pencils and paper in another pocket; scissors, small games, comb and brush, etc., in the other pockets.

Crocheting, writing paper, envelopes, stamps, pens, etc., may be used for an older person.

This can prevent many steps for the one who is tending the patient.

JOSEPHINE ELMER.

I hope whoever it was . . . is well by now. And my heartfelt thanks to you for helping others.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I use old nylon hose for hair nets!

Just cut off the foot part of the stocking at the ankle, then split the leg of the stocking all the way up through the top. Presto, one wide piece of nylon that can be wrapped turban style on the hair after setting.

These stockings adhere wonderfully without the aid of extra pins, and I find they last longer than regular hair nets.

PHYLLIS.

-:-

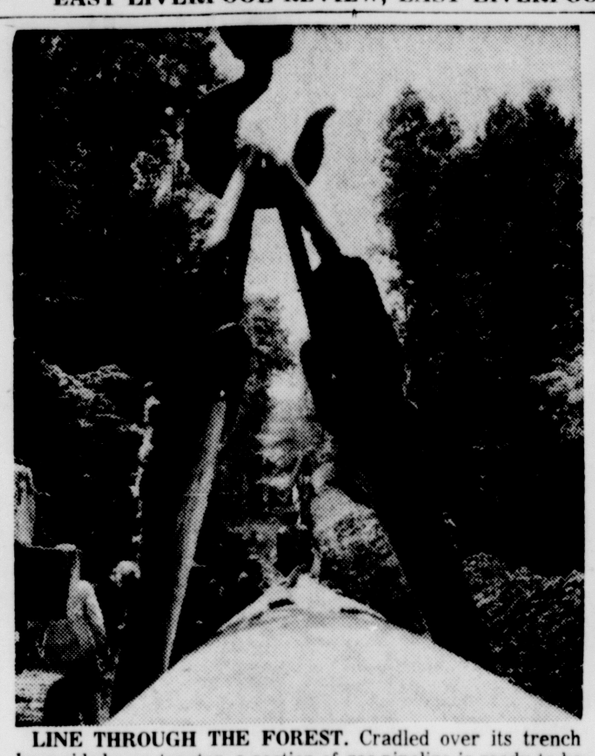
Oh, Phyllis . . . This is fantabulous! And the stocking could be dyed to match anything.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Use elastic thread to sew heavy buttons on coats. The buttons are more secure and it eliminates re-sewing loose buttons.

Elastic thread is sold in dime stores, at department store sewing notions counters and needlework shops.

MARIE REILLY.



LINE THROUGH THE FOREST. Cradled over its trench by a side-boom tractor, a section of gas pipeline is ready to be lowered into position in the Washington rain forests. Pipelines criss-cross the country.

For Merry Men— And Pilgrims, Too

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)— Robin Hood would feel right at home in one little part of the lush Cumberland National Forest. So would Miles Standish.

It's because Robin's longbow and the blunderbuss of the Pilgrims are among the weapons prescribed for hunters' use in the area.

The state Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources and the U.S. Forest Service set aside an 8,000-acre tract in the forest as a primitive weapons area.

The weapons are defined as longbows, crossbows, muzzle-loading rifles and muzzle-loading shotguns.

Among the animals hunted on the heavily timbered hills are squirrel, doves, rabbits, quail and deer.

In Cornwall, the tin mines began to close down during the economic slump of the 1890s.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter is 12 years old. I'm concerned about her continuing devotion to Marilyn Monroe. My husband says I'm making too much of it but I feel the child's preoccupation with a movie star who committed suicide is unhealthy.

Aug. 5 was the second anniversary of Marilyn Monroe's death. Our daughter remembered the date and searched several newspapers for clippings and put them in her Marilyn scrapbook. We live near the star's final resting place and our daughter wants to go there every day.

I've decided not to say or do anything until I get some horse sense advice from you.—WAITING TO HEAR.

Dear Waiting: Try to shift your daughter's interest. If she has modest talents—voice, dancing, painting or piano—give her lessons. Tell her she may not visit the crypt again until next Aug. 5.

After six months, if her morbid preoccupation with Miss Monroe persists, take her to a psychiatrist.

Second Childhood

Dear Ann: My mother and father were happily married for 52 years. Mother passed away last June. Dad took it awfully hard—for about three weeks.

Now he is so busy making dates with all the widows in the neighborhood we don't know where he is half the time.

Dad used to complain that his teeth didn't fit, and that his lumbago was bothering him, but since he has become a ladies' man he says he feels better than he has in years. To look at him you'd never guess he is 75 years old.

All this may sound fine, but I'm worried that the lively pace may shorten his life. He could drop dead any minute.

Also, is it possible that he is in his second childhood? How do we get him to slow down without hurting his feelings:—C.C.

Dear C.C.: Leave him alone. His second childhood may be a lot more fun than his first.

Better that Gramps should be whooping it up than sitting at home glued to his rocking chair. If he drops dead at 75 that's not a bad way to go.

Lousy Idea

Dear Ann: I'm no youngster Ann, and I've been around enough to know the score in anybody's ball game. At 42 I've had three unsuccessful marriages and I don't need a fourth.

The man I've been seeing is 40 and has had two divorces. We get along fine. I don't ask any questions when he goes on a bender (about once every three weeks) and I'm not trying to make him over to suit me. He likes my two teen-age children and is a better father to them than their real dad ever was.

This man has had some money troubles lately and wants to move in with me until things ease up. He claims that since everyone knows we are going together I should be grown up about his moving in. Last night he said, "I'd marry you, honey, but I'd be a lousy husband."

I need an outsider's opinion and you're elected.—ADELINE.

Dear Adeline: So he'd be a lousy husband—but he'd make a great roomer?

Tell him no thanks. If you can't think of any better reason to keep this guy's clothes out of your closet consider your children, please.

-:-

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Princess Of Festival Really Had The Spirit

FULTON, Ky. (AP) — The reigning princess of the International Banana Festival really got into the spirit of the celebration this year.

The princess, Carol Glisson of Martin, Tenn., slipped on a banana peel during festival ceremonies.

Luckily, a young athlete was there to catch her and prevent a fall.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Jackie Hits Back At TV's Book

If CBS - TV president Jim Aubrey was caught rifling a "secret projects" file at NBC or ABC, it wouldn't cause as much trade talk as Merle Miller's true-life book, 'Only You Dick Darling!"

Hal Humphrey

Chief protagonists in Miller's saga of survival in network TV are Aubrey, writer - producer Robert Alan Aurthur, Jackie Cooper and Miller himself, who was commissioned to write a pilot script for a new TV series starring Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck.

-:-

THE SERIES was still-born as a $350,000 pilot film after five and a half months of nightmarish fears on the part of the money-hungry and would-be progenitors already mentioned.

"Frankly, I haven't read the book," Jackie Cooper said to me this week from an easy chair in his spacious office at Screen Gems, where he now is vice president in charge of all West Coast operations.

"I started it, but so many people have told me about it in detail, including my wife, that they've spoiled it for me. I'm told Merle gives someone else credit for it, but I was the one who suggested he should write a book. It was when we first went to New Mexico to research the series characters."

HAVING LIVED through the same experience, Cooper doesn't need to be told by Miller or anyone else what happened.

"Merle is a fine writer and I am sure he has written an entertaining book, but much of it is false. Apparently I know some things which he still doesn't know. It was his friend, Robert Alan Aurthur, who put together that final shooting script," added Cooper, a trifle bitterly.

In the book Cooper comes off as Miller's saboteur, and a man not to be trusted — at least by writers.

"Nobody is more protective of writers than I, but Miller walked out on me at the last without even calling. As for his first draft (Miller says he wrote 19), I only wish he had the courage to print it in his book," said Cooper.

-:-

EXCEPT for heavy doses of coloring and a few wrong facts, Cooper does admit that Miller's book is a valid critique of TV program development as practiced by some companies and producers. He insists it could not and would not happen at Screen Gems.

Writing in Life magazine last week, author Max Wylie (also a TV executive), praised Miller's book because "it names names and it names the disease." Wylie also accused Cooper of "destroying" his own TV series, "Henesey," by taking over script editorship and writer procurement. Wylie was the sponsor's representative on "Henesey."

"I don't think Wylie has much license to talk. He took a job at the Lennen & Newell ad agency which he knew nothing about, and tried to tell me my business," Cooper retorted.

NOT MANY industry bigwigs care to get into the argument officially, but Christopher Knopf, president of the TV branch of Writers Guild of America West, considers Millers' writing of the book a "cheap stunt."

"I haven't read the book, but I know Miller and Cooper and like them both. I had an office next door to Cooper's during those months and he had nothing but praise for Miller. Everyone should have such a press agent as Cooper was for Miller. I don't believe in these kiss-and-tell stories, and that's what this is, purely," Knopf commented.

Aubrey and Aurthur so far have refrained from making any public pronouncements on Miller's funny confessional. Miller was signed for a guest interview on the syndicated "Regis Philbin Show," but after sponsor attorneys saw the video tape and deleted objectionable quotes, there wasn't enough left to put on the air.

Cooper just laughed when I asked what he would do if Miller submitted an idea for a TV series to him now.

TV Highlights

7:30, KDKA, CBS News Special: "The Burden and the Glory of John F. Kennedy." A special broadcast dedicated to the memory of the late President. Participants include Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai E. Stevenson and Undersecretary of State for Political Affairs, Averell W. Harriman.

7:30, WTAE, WEWS, Ozzie and Harriet: Harriet bugs Ozzie for answers to a questionnaire on marital happiness and they both discover it's best not to "rock the boat."

8:30, KDKA, WSTV, Beverly Hillbillies: The Clampettes are unaware that a hillbilly youth, hailing from their poverty-stricken old ballwick, is now wallowing in wealth as the singing hero of millions of young fans.

8:30, WTAE, WEWS, Shindig: Featured performers will be Paul Peterson, Jackie and Gayle, Bob Doqui and Arnold Rollins, Donna Loren.

TableRite Turkey Timetable

Good News! The roasting time for turkey has been reduced in recommendations from the National Poultry & Egg Board.

Wise homemakers serve TableRite Turkeys (for quality) and start bird 20 to 30 minutes ahead of schedule to allow for possible delays. Also plan time for turkey to set, to arrange on platter, and to make gravy.

The following schedule is the latest, and presented here just as a guide to help you.

Ready To Cook Weight	Pre-Heat Oven Temp.	Interior Temp.	Roasting Time Guide
6 to 8 lbs.	325° F	185°	2-2½ hrs.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Self-Defense Essential In Some Cases

Dr. Garry Myers

Frequently a mother writes of the boy from six to ten who is intimidated or "beaten up" by boys a year or more older (none of these letters are about girls). For example, a mother writes of her boy, six years old, as follows: "A while back you solved a problem I had with my daughter. Your advice was just perfect. I would like your opinion now on a problem I have with my son six years old. He is a small and thin child. All his friends are older than he — they are seven and eight years old. These boys all have the advantage over him. They seem to pick on him because they know he will not try to fight them. He is afraid of them because they can beat him up. I have always tried to teach my son to try to defend himself the best he can without fighting dirty. And the older he got the more he would be able to protect himself. Dr. Myers, it hurts me when Bob tells me that he was beat up, but I do not interfere and just tell him not to play with them. But he is always back playing with them because he has no one his own age to play with.

-:-

"HOWEVER, today my girl friend shocked me. Her son, who is eight years old, had a fight with a boy of nine. They are built about the same. My girl friend was wild and told her son not to come home to her and cry, that since the other boy was older he has to protect himself the best he can; she didn't care how — by biting, kicking, pulling hair, etc., as long as he got back at the other child. She even got on the floor and showed her son how to use these tactics in the same position her son was in. Do you think it is right for us to tell our son that he has to protect himself no matter how it is done?"

My reply in part: The advice your "girl friend" gave her son might be good if it were limited to a situation in which her son was physically attacked without provocation by the other boy older than himself. However, the chances are that her son would believe he could properly pick a fight with an older, stronger boy and then depend on tooth and claw protection if he did.

YOUR BOY'S main problem is that he has had "no one his own age to play with." Your parents should help him find some boys his age. He might be able to find some among his classmates. If he insists on playing with those older boys he will have to face the consequences.

You might help him by pointing out to him that he would do well to observe the rules they require of him and not press himself into their activities against their objections; that he should avoid saying ugly things to them, or do anything provocative. In other words, he will be wise to accept their dominance as long as he is among them.

When some of these older boys are welcomed in your home you might win their good graces and guide your son to grow more acceptable to them.

A factor overlooked by most parents of the child who often is beaten up by older children is that, as this child is pressed to defend himself at any cost, he soon may become a pest among these older children, calling them ugly names, throwing sticks and stones at them, or annoying them in all sorts of ways until they turn on him violently.

INSTEAD of urging the child to defend himself against older, stronger children, he should be encouraged to accept their superior physical prowess and try to win their acceptance through other talents of his. Most of all this child needs to find a number of playmates of his own age and size with whom he can be expected to defend himself.

My bulletin, "Your Child and His Playmates," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

At Taxpayers' Expense

2 Of GOP Question Tour By 10 Congress Staffers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Republican congressmen have questioned the propriety of a 19-day tour 10 congressional committee staffers are making of Air Force bases in the Pacific — at taxpayers' expense.

Some of the staffers on the Air Force-sponsored tour work for committees with little of any connection with military matters.

"This kind of operation seems to run counter to (Secretary of Defense Robert S.) McNamara's pledge to reduce spending in the Defense Department," said Rep. Frank T. Bow of Ohio.

A high-ranking member of the House Appropriations Committee, Bow said: "It will be interesting when the Defense Department's budget comes in next year to find the cost of and the reasons for a trip of this kind."

Rep. William G. Bray of Indiana, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said he favors foreign trips by congressmen and staff members when they serve a useful purpose.

But of this trip, Bray said: "I can't see any justification for it and I think it's one of the expenses that could be cut down."

The Air Force furnished The Associated Press Tuesday with some facts about the tour and the names of those on it after Capitol Hill sources had made the trip known.

Acknowledging that it is footing the bill, the Air Force said it has not calculated the cost.

The congressional staffers — no Congress members are making the trip — stay in quarters at the bases where available and in hotels where not available, the Air Force said. They are being transported in a military version of the Constellation, a four-engine propeller-driven craft.

"General orientation and familiarization" with military activities and facilities in the Far East is the purpose of the tour, the Air Force said.

Committees represented include the Senate subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and the Senate subcommittee on Investigations.

Some of the subcommittees deal directly with military operations and government procurement.

The tour, from Nov. 5 to Nov. 24, includes air bases in Canada, the Aleutians, Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Formosa, Hong Kong, Manila, Guam, Wake Island and Hawaii.

Johnson Whipped Up Plans For Own Anniversary Fete

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson mixed sentiment and fun in a surprise dinner for his wife on their 30th wedding anniversary.

The President, with the aid of White House staff members, planned the celebration himself — inviting 20 guests to dinner Tuesday night, choosing the menu and planning the anniversary cake.

The guests were personal friends of the First Family. The Johnsons' daughters, Lynda, 20, and Luci, 17, brought their dates to help their parents celebrate.

The Johnsons were married Nov. 17, 1934, in St. Marks Episcopal Church in San Antonio, Tex., when he was a secretary to a Texas congressman.

One of the gifts the President had for his wife was arrangements for a trip for her. Where or when, the White House would not say. After the campaign, Mrs. Johnson had said she wanted to go away on a trip for a few days and "walk under the sky."

In fun, the President also gave Mrs. Johnson a picture of "Gunsmoke" star Marshal Matt Dillon, whom the First Lady likes to watch on television on Saturday night.

Johnson inscribed the picture, "To Lady Bird and my Saturday night competition."

The White House did not disclose what Mrs. Johnson had given her husband to mark the day.

The cake was a big white frosted sponge cake of three layers with lemon filling, decorated with yellow roses, white doves, two silver springs and snapshots of Mrs. Johnson and her family.

Churches' Duty Cited In Battle Against Poverty

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Churches have a responsibility to exert moral leadership in the battle to wipe out poverty, delegates to a 16 - denomination meeting decided here Tuesday.

The delegates—about 175 of them from throughout Ohio — made the assertion in a resolution before ending the two-day meeting of the Ohio Council of Churches.

Dr. John M. Wilson of Columbus, executive director, said the delegates also favored a proposal for the employment of a supervisory chaplain to aid chaplain ministry in Ohio's state institutions.

Dr. William C. Newman, pastor of the First Christian Church of Mansfield, was re - elected president of the council. Frank P. Celeste, lay delegate and former mayor of Lakewood, was elected first vice president.

Market Factors Termed Key To Steel Price Hike

NEW YORK (AP) — Market factors—and not the contest for the presidency of the United Steelworkers Union—will determine whether there is a boost in steel prices in the near future, an industry leader says.

Logan T. Johnston, president of Armco Steel Corp., said here Tuesday he differs from observers who say campaigning by rival USW candidates will raise the price of labor peace in 1965 and thereby put added pressure on prices.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Boredom Leads To Stoutness

"Flee boredom; it is fattening." This challenge comes from none other than Gabrielle "Coco" Chanel. This fabulous Parisienne designer maintains that both boredom and overweight are frightfully aging.

Ida Jean Kain

Well, boredom is fattening, for it so often leads to overeating. A homemaker wrote: "Two hours after dinner I find myself out in the kitchen making a sandwich! Why, I wouldn't know. I couldn't be hungry after a good meal. Can you give me a clue?"

—:—

THINK of this as humdrum hunger. You are bored. You haven't anything interesting or stimulating to occupy your mind, so you turn to food. You probably don't say, "I'm bored, I guess I'll eat something." But food is comforting and it does bring a temporary solace. But since eating at odd hours does nothing to solve the real problem, it is no solution.

Surveys have shown that three out of four overweights turn to food when bored and vaguely discontented. It's easy to fall into the habit of eating just to be doing something. The insidious part is that humdrum hunger quickly turns into habit hunger. After a week or two of eating at a certain hour, you actually feel hungry at that specific time. It's almost as if the stomach could tell time.

Now, supposing you're heading for the kitchen and the telephone rings. It's a friend who says, "I've got two tickets to the theater. Tom is tied up and can't make it. If you can go I'll pick you up in 20 minutes." Would you keep right on in the direction of the kitchen? Certainly not! You'd forget all about that sandwich.

SCIENTIFIC experiments have shown that mild hunger contractions do not enter your conscious mind as pangs of hunger if your attention is diverted. For example: If you are at a fashion show and the hour rolls around to mealtime, you wouldn't even think about food if you are absorbed in the fascinating clothes. It is a matter of interest.

When life loses its zest, and boredom sets in, it is easy to grab whatever is near at hand to get a lift. Food is usually handy.

What's the solution? To go on a diet? No! Decide to make your life more interesting, more meaningful. Stir yourself to make some changes. Tackle something challenging. Replenish your mind with interesting thoughts and ideas. Refuse to allow food to become a substitute satisfaction.

Pastor Discusses Church Problems

The Rev. Robert Andrews, pastor of the First Christian Church of Wellsville, discussed the differences in church principles at a meeting of the Philip Fletcher Chapter of the Men's Organization Monday night in the Riverside United Presbyterian Church at Wellsville.

He spoke on the possibility of the churches uniting and the difficulties that would be encountered.

Twenty - six attended. Class 16 served dinner.

Russell Keefer, president, presided. Charles Donaldson, secretary, arranged the program.

A special meeting will be held Dec. 14. The next regular meeting is slated for Jan. 19. A film, "Wheels of Tragedy", will be screened by a State Highway Patrol officer.

VFW At Chester Donates $1,000 For Fire Truck

Chester VFW Post 6450 Monday night voted a $1,000 donation to the volunteer fire department toward the purchase of a new truck. Chester Legion Post 121 recently gave $1,500 toward the purchase.

The post also made a $25 donation to the VFW National Children's home at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Theodore Zagula of New Cumberland and Kenneth Garey of Lisbon were accepted as new members. George Allison, commander, conducted business.

The post voted to pay the 1965 dues of World War I members who were paid up this year. A flag will be donated to the city for use at City Hall.

It will be presented Mayor Harry Abrams in the near future.

Jim Metsch and William Maple served lunch to 15. The next meeting will be Dec. 21.

Old-timers in New York's Hudson Valley say the Lincoln funeral train still makes its way up the valley, gliding along to the dirge of an orchestra of skeletons seated at a flatcar. The Hudson Valley has many ghosts, notably the Headless Horseman who chased after Ichabod Crane.

Students Invited To Conference On Agriculture

LISBON — High school students interested in careers in the field of agriculture will have an opportunity to learn about study programs during a career conference at Ohio State University Dec. 5, according to Robert Lewis, county extension agent in 4-H work. The program will begin at 9:30 a. m. in the Agricultural Administration Building auditorium on the university's West Campus.

Highlights include a discussion by Roy M. Kottman, dean of the College of Agriculture, on "What Is Agriculture?" and "Programs of Study."

A group of upperclass students in agriculture will participate in a panel discussion of some aspects of college life, such as the role of student activities.

A presentation, "Where Our Graduates Go," will also be given, depicting career opportunities for agricultural college graduates.

To give prospective students an opportunity to ask questions, small discussion groups will be formed, led by faculty members and upperclass students. Tours also have been arranged to enable interested students to visit various departments in the College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

All junior high and high school students, parents, counselors and others interested in careers in agriculture may attend, Lewis said.

Glenn Will Take 2 Weeks Training

EL TORO, Calif. (AP)—Col. John Glenn Jr., the Ohio-born former astronaut, has arrived here for two weeks of training to reestablish his flying proficiency.

Glenn was grounded after a bathroom fall at his apartment in Columbus, Ohio, earlier this year. An inner ear injury left him with an illness involving frequent dizzy spells.

It also knocked him out of the race for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator from Ohio. Glenn is a native of New Concord, Ohio.

The first American to make an orbital space flight, Glenn plans to retire from the Marines about Jan. 1.

"I'm going to continue flying after I retire," Glenn told newsmen before leaving Houston, Tex.

Glenn announced plans last month to go into private business but said he plans to continue working for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration on a part-time basis.

Montgomery Ward's Shows Earnings Rise

CHICAGO (AP) — Montgomery Ward & Co. reports third-quarter earnings of $2,597,977, or 18 cents a share, compared with $2,133,327 and 15 cents at this time last year.

Sales for the quarter were $423,286,629, an increase of 11.6 per cent over $379,449,796 in the third quarter of 1963.

Earnings for the first nine months of the 1964 fiscal year ended Oct. 28 were $8,705,398, or 63 cents a share, compared with $9,260,949, or 66 cents, for the corresponding 1963 months.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperature will average about 6 degrees below normal. Representative normal high and low temperatures are Cleveland 46-30, Columbus 48-30 and Cincinnati 52-34. Not so cold Thursday but below normal during the remainder of the five days. Precipitation will total about one half of one inch as rain Thursday and Thursday night and occasional snow flurries over the weekend.

Kremlin Leaders Seem Divided Into Two Camps

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The latest Soviet Communist shakeup piles puzzle upon puzzle, as if internal conflicts were aggravated by Nikita Khrushchev's fall. Some of the difficulty might even be traced to Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

Kremlin leaders seem to be divided into two camps. One appears eager to nail down party authority over all phases of Soviet life, the other to push ahead with practical but bold programs, salvaging whatever might be usable from ideas developed in the Khrushchev era. It has the look of a struggle between conservatives and liberalizers, for the present at a standoff.

The party Central Committee's decision this week makes it appear that Khrushchev reached a pinnacle in 1961, gradually thereafter losing his grip in a clash between party anxiety about control and Khrushchev's impatience to start the U.S.S.R on the rocky road toward catching up with the United States.

Many who watched Khrushchev in the United States five years ago judged him severely shaken by the affluent society. His tinkering with Marxist doctrine increased noticeably thereafter, finally provoking outraged conservatives into accusing him of heading toward capitalism.

Bureaucracy frustrated swift Soviet internal development. Khrushchev seemed eager to do something about it. He increased the authority of the 15 republic governments of the U.S.S.R.

The program never really got off the ground. The nation ran into severe shortages of grain, milk and meat and vast waste in industrial output because of inferior goods. At this point, powerful Nikolai Podgorny, a Ukrainian on the Presidium, complained that labor discipline in farms and factories was lagging.

Implicitly Podgorny blamed Khrushchev's policies, as if Khrushchev's fever to make the race with the United States had pushed things too far, too swiftly.

In December 1962, Khrushchev introduced another reform, establishing separate party industrial and agricultural boards around the country to concentrate party attention in these respective fields. Discipline was to be insured by means of city and zonal units responsible to higher party organizations, which in turn answered to Moscow.

This was a sharp turn back to centralization, but it also meant more confusion and more red tape. Whether Khrushchev was wholly responsible, he could be blamed, and it provided extra levereage for prying him out of power.

Among those zeroing in on Khrushchev may have been a strong Ukrainian bloc, headed by Podgorny, even though Khrushchev's own route to power was through the Ukraine.

In the new shakeup this week, a number of Ukrainians moved up the ladder. Podgorny appears to be close to the top under First Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, Khrushchev's successor.

Brezhnev and the new premier, Alexei N. Kosygin, seem to be cautiously on the fence at the moment in the jockeying over economic policy. But many of the younger generation Communists of the new managerial class who rose under Khrushchev seem eager to push ahead with the race to catch up with the U.S. economy. Despite the power behind the conservatives, the liberalizers remain strong enough to carry the day eventually.

Stolen Recording Device Squeals On Teen-Agers

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A stolen recording device squealed on two teen-agers. Detective Sgt. Gerald Baggerly, following a tip Tuesday, went to the apartment of Jack Smith, 19, and John Wingert, 18. There he found the recorder, 10 cartons of cigarettes and some foreign coins.

Baggerly said when he flipped on the machine, it reported it had been stolen from the First Presbyterian church. The detective said the youths had recorded the confession during a party when someone asked where they got the machine.

Smith and Wingert were charged with second-degree burglary.

Boy Sets House Afire To Reunite Parents

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A 10-year-old boy told police he wanted to bring his parents back together so he set his mother's house afire.

Detective Fairlee Morgan reported Tuesday, that the boy said his father lived in Montgomery, Ala., and his mother lived in Mobile in a house belonging to relatives.

The boy was quoted as saying he thought his mother would have to go to Montgomery if the house burned.

The fire was stopped before much damage was done to the small frame house.

OFF THE RECORD

"No one here suspects that I lost everything in the stock market."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 18, the 323rd day of 1964. There are 43 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1890, the battleship Maine was launched. The Maine was blown up in Havana Harbor Feb. 15, 1898.

On this date

In 1776, the Colonial Army evacuated Ft. Lee, N.J., and started a retreat across the state.

In 1888, St. Andrews Golf Club, N.Y., the first in the United States, was formed.

In 1903, a treaty between the United States and Panama was ratified, giving the United States control of a 10-mile-wide strip of land for a canal.

In 1913, the first airplane loop-the-loop was made by Lincoln Beachy at San Diego, Calif.

In 1943, Secretary of State Cordell Hull addressed a joint session of Congress on Moscow conference decisions.

Ten years ago — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France was in Washington to ask financial aid to halt Communist threat to South Viet Nam.

Five years ago — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer conferred in London with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan on an agenda for East-West summit talks.

One year ago—An army coup overthrew the government of Iraq, which was replaced by a military junta.

Volunteer Firemen Go On Snake Hunt

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — The Haw Creek Volunteer Fire Department near Asheville received a call to go on a snake hunt.

Mrs. Lula Deaton called firemen to "hunt down a snake" in her home. Chief K.A. Roy Masters and his assistant, Worth Frink, responded.

The firemen reported that they found a 36½-inch copperhead lying under the coffee table on the Deaton livingroom.

Junior Editors Quiz on Chameleons

QUESTION: What makes chameleons change color?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The true chameleon is the funny little fellow shown at upper right, living in Madagascar and Africa, as well as parts of Asia and Europe. He has a very long sticky tongue with which to catch insects (1), can roll his eyes (2), has peculiar grasping toes (3) and a tail he can wrap around twigs for support (4). The American chameleon is an American lizard of another kind, usually called "chameleon" because he can change colors so often, like the Old World one. It is a popular idea that chameleons change color to match their surroundings, but there is little truth in this. Scientists say that changes in temperature and in the intensity of the light as well as the lizards' emotional feelings such as fright, anger and so on, make the differences in color. Under ordinary conditions a chameleon may be gray green with small spots; in the dark this may fade to cream color. Under bright sunlight the lizard may turn black. Hot conditions without sunlight may make the chameleon green; when startled, he may turn to a lighter tone with brown areas and yellow spots.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: The American chameleon, often sold at pet shops and circuses, is lots of fun to keep in a vivarium such as we show. Feed them meal worms and flies and be sure to sprinkle the cage with water so they can lap up the drops. If you can't keep one, try to find someone who has a pet chameleon and check up on the colors.

CONTEST RULES:

(1) On this Official Entry Blank, print your name and address along with the name and address of your favorite Pepsi dealer. Mail completed entry along with six corks from under Pepsi or Diet Pepsi caps to: Youngstown "Pepsi Quiz," Box 776 Akron, Ohio.

(2) In the spaces provided, print your answers to each of the 25 questions, being sure each answer is spelled correctly and legibly. If an answer requires two names (example: John Smith), print only the last name. Count the number of letters in each answer and place it in the box to the right of the question (see sample question). When all questions have been answered and the boxes marked with the appropriate number of letters, add the numbers in all boxes and print the total in the Grand Total Box.

Be sure your answers have been spelled correctly and are legible. Also be sure that you have totaled the numbers in the boxes correctly.

(3) You may enter the Pepsi Quiz in three ways: (a) use the entry form in this ad, or (b) use the entry form available wherever Pepsi is sold, or (c) make a facsimile of the entry form, writing in answers and totaling letters in the Grand Total Box. Enter as often as you wish. Each entry must be mailed separately. Entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, November 28, 1964.

(4) Winners will be selected by the Premium & Contest Division of Reiter-Ross, Inc., an independent judging organization. In the event of ties, all entries with correctly answered Pepsi Quiz questions and the correctly entered total in the Grand Total Box will participate in a drawing to determine prize winners. Only one prize to a family. Judges' decisions are final.

(5) The Pepsi Quiz is open only to residents of the Ohio counties served by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Companies of Akron and Youngstown. Employees of the Pepsi-Cola Company, their families, the Pepsi-Cola Bottlers, Reiter-Ross, Inc., and their advertising agencies are not eligible to enter. Contest subject to all federal, state and local regulations.

(6) No substitutions will be made for any prize offered. Each Gift Certificate is redeemable only at the dealer listed on the entry blank. Tax liability on prizes will be the responsibility of prize winners. Winners will be notified by mail approximately 30 days after the contest closes. All entries become the property of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company in the area.

Official Entry Blank—Cut out and mail in! Contest open only to residents of the counties served by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Companies of Akron & Youngstown.
